Talk Bid Puzzling To Slavs

Firm in Threat Against Trieste

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Yugoslavs were puzzled Monday over the latest Big Three pronouncement on the explosive Trieste dispute; but their leaders stood fast in their threat to march in if Italian troops move into Zone A.

There still was no official comment on the West's invitation to Yugoslavia and Italy to meet with the United States, Britain and France to discuss the burning Trieste question.

Yugoslavia's Chief U.N. Delegate Leo Mates said in Washington he thought his government might be inclined to accept. But President Tito and other speakers already have declared they feel such a meeting would be of no use if Britain and the United States held in advance to their decision to pull out of Zone A of Trieste and turn it over to Italian administration.

* * *

THE COMMUNIQUE issued by U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Bidault at the end of their three-day conference in London plunged Belgrade into puzzled, anxious suspense.

But the angry demonstrations that some had expected to follow any unfavorable decision by the Big Three did not take place.

The first radio bulletin heard in Belgrade said "The whole thing seems very unclear—we don't know what it will lead to—it looks barren."

Tito and two of his top government aides made it clear in speeches in different parts of the country that Yugoslavia stood firm on her avowal that the entry of Italian troops into Zone A would be considered an act of aggression.

Benson Relents on Aid; Installment Buying Hit

Blamed for Drop In Farm Income

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Indiana's biggest farm organization told the touring House Agriculture Committee Monday farm prices would be higher—if consumers weren't allowed to get themselves so far into debt buying TV sets, automobiles and houses.

Hassil E. Schenck, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau, called for revised credit policies to prevent "abuses" of the installment buying plan.

He testified his group was not ready to take a definite stand on the question of whether the next session of Congress should continue rigid high farm support prices for basic crops or allow flexible and lower supports to go into force on 1955 crops.

Schenck said the members are being polled to find out what they want.

However, he added, they "seem" to feel that much of the present crop surpluses could have been avoided, had Congress permitted supports to be lowered during the past few years.

Dean H. J. Reed of Purdue University's School of Agriculture also spoke out against rigid high supports as long-range farm legislation. The rigid government production controls required to hold down surpluses under such a program probably would "put agriculture in a straight jacket," he said.

After traveling through Northwestern, Southern and Western and Central Corn Belt states, the 17 participating members agreed, in an informal poll, that the House group would vote almost solidly for continuation of present 90 per cent of parity price supports for corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco, peanuts and rice.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices, declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay.

The 90 per cent support law will expire at the end of the 1954 marketing year unless extended by Congress.

Minor Grain Props Expected Continued

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson was reported in congressional circles Monday to have decided to continue price supports on oats, barley and rye—a move which would counter one phase of reputed farm dissatisfaction.

Such a decision by Benson, expected to be announced soon, would be aimed at reassuring farmers against the possibility of disastrous price drops later.

It might also have the effect of lessening criticism of the secretary, who has been reluctant to approve the present high level price support program. That criticism built up new steam over the week end.

* * *

ANNOUNCEMENT of continued supports for prices of minor grains might be interpreted in the Farm Belt as indicating that Benson is in line with President Eisenhower's statement that the principle of price props must be retained in the new farm program to be sent to Congress early next year.

The minor grains now are being supported at 85 per cent of parity under an order of the previous Democratic administration. Some members of Congress said it was possible that Benson might even raise this to 90 per cent, the level at which wheat and corn and some other farm products are supported.

* * *

THE AGRICULTURE Department, meanwhile, foresaw an end to another farm problem: A decline in cattle prices which has persisted for more than a year.

The department said in a summary of the situation that prices in 1954 are not expected to average lower than this year, but are not likely to regain their levels of a year or two ago.

Benson's political troubles were emphasized over the week end when two Republican members of congress—Sen. Young (ND) and Rep. A. L. Miller (Neb)—said it is time for Benson to be replaced in the Eisenhower cabinet.

* * *

YOUNG SAID in an interview that Benson ought to quit the cabinet "because he has lost the confidence of the farmers." Miller, appearing on a television program, said the secretary has become "a symbol of lost confidence."

Sen. Hunt (D-Wyo) agreed with Miller. Rep. Curtis (R-Neb), appearing with them and Rep. Patman (D-Tex) on the program, defended Benson and said "we are advancing on the farm front."

Miller said Benson may be the victim of "propaganda that he is doing something to the farmers, and he declared:

"Benson's staying on depends a great deal on the President's success in reassuring the farmers, the cattlemen and others that their interests and welfare will be protected, not only now but in the future."

Policemen Questioned On Ransom

Arresting Officer Too Nervous Now

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An inquiry into police reports on the Bobby Greenlease kidnaping case opened here but the policeman credited with solving the case was reported to be too nervous to undergo questioning now.

The St Louis police board ordered the investigation following published reports discrepancies had been found in the police account by the FBI, searching for the missing $300,000 of the $600,000 paid in ransom by the 6-year-old boy's wealth father, Robert Greenlease of Kansas City.

Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell, conducting the inquiry, said Police Lt. Louis Shoulders would not be questioned at this time because of a nervous condition. Shoulders was credited with solving the case by arresting Carl Hall, who has admitted the crime.

O'Connell said Shoulders' physician told him that the police officer needed rest as a result of his work on the case and that his health might be affected by questioning now.

* * *

WHEN INFORMED of the new investigation, Shoulders snapped he is getting "sick and tired" of rumors about the case. He said he would "report to the police board or the chief, and not to the FBI or to newspapers."

The new investigation was ordered at a special meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners. The board acted after the St. Louis Post-Dispatch quoted the FBI as saying the police report on what happened to the money found with Hall contains discrepancies.

* * *

ACCORDING to the official report, the newspaper said, Hall and two suitcases stuffed with money were taken to the Newstead Ave. police station here immediately following the capture.

However, the newspaper said the FBI reported the suitcases were not brought to the station until more than an hour after Hall arrived.

When the money was counted, it came to $294,000, the Post-Dispatch said. The only money actually brought to the station with Hall was $800 in his wallet, according to the newspaper.

Polish, Czech 'Neutrals' Walk Out of POW Meet After Demands Rejected

Interviewing May Collapse

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Beaten in their demand that Indian troops force defiant Korean war prisoners to listen to Red persuasion teams, the two Communist delegations reportedly stormed out of a Korean repatriation commission meeting Monday.

The Polish and Czech walkout—reported by reliable sources—threatened a collapse in the tension-ridden interviewing of 23,400 anti-Communist prisoners who refuse to return to their homelands.

The sources, who declined to be named, said the Swedish, Swiss and Indian members of the five-nation commission sided together on the critical issue.

The sources gave no indication whether the walkout would be permanent but it was certain that the sudden move stalled all activity of the commission at least temporarily.

* * *

A COMMISSION spokesman said there would be no explanations Tuesday. The Reds had refused to interview Chinese instead of the North Koreans they had asked for.

Monday's explanations were called off for the same reason.

The North Koreans have stubbornly refused to move out of their compounds to meet with Red explanation teams whose job is is to persuade the anti-Red Pows to return to their homelands.

The commission cancelled the planations and called a hurried meeting to discuss the touchy problem.

Then after 1½ hours of debate, the Poles and Czechs walked out, the sources said.

* * *

THE REDS HAVE taken bitter propaganda blows in the two days the interviews have been held. Only 19 of 921 Chinese interviewed asked for repatriation—a total of about 2 per cent.

So far no North Korean has faced a Red explainer.

However, six North Koreans who requested repatriation were turned over to the Reds, raising to 131 the number of POWS who have returned to Red rule without first meeting with the Red explainers.

In all, some 22,400 anti-Red POWS are in custody of the repatriation commission.

Communist Correspondent Wilfred Burchett, who often echoes official Red policy, said one of the main disputes between the Reds and the repatriation commission was over who has the right to determine explanation plans.

Burchett said the Communists believe they have the right to determine whether they will explain to Chinese or North Korean captives and they also want to say when they will talk to the POWS.

Want to Settle Who Will Attend

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China has accepted a U.S. invitation to start planning the Korean peace conference at Panmunjom next Monday but the Reds stubbornly insisted on the right to settle there who will take part in the full-scale talks.

The Communists didn't yield a step to earlier U.S. demands that the preliminary sessions settle only time and place of the peace conference and not its makeup.

In a note to the United States and the U.N. broadcast by the Red Peiping radio, the Communists again insisted that nonbelligerent nations take part in the conference, making it a round-table meeting.

* * *

HOWEVER, THE Red note came in the wake of reports from London that the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France have agreed secretely on a new and different plan—a peace conference made up of the Big Five and North Korea.

Such a conference would include Russia and—for this meeting, anyway—Red China, rather than Nationalist China.

The Reds proposed Oct. 10 that U.N. Communist representatives meet in Panmunjom to discuss the time, place and—most controversial — the composition of the conference.

* * *

THE FIRST Red answer came only after four prodding notes from the United States urging a quick reply whether the Reds intended to take part in them.

The United States and its 16 war partners answered the Reds last week in a carefully-worded note suggesting that the two sides send delegations to Panmunjom Oct. 26 to discuss plans for the conference.

However, the Allied note stressed that the U.N. representative—special State Department Consultant Arthur Dean—would be prepared to discuss only "a time and place" for the conference and would not go into the dispute on its makeup or decide what nations shall take part.

In their note the Reds again insisted that India, Indonesia, Burma, Pakistan and Russia be permitted to attend the peace talks as neutrals.

* * *

HOWEVER, in its reply the U.N. gave no indication of changing its own plan for the conference—a meeting of the two belligerent sides only with the warring U.N. nations and South Korea on one side and China and North Korea on the other, plus Russia if she is invited by the Reds.

Escape Try From Federal Cells Probed

An attempted escape from federal cells of city jail is being investigated by police and federal authorities.

Assistant Chief of Police Eugene Masters said the digging out of a three-inch hole in the wall of the second story "bullpen" appeared to be the work of a ringleader and "three or four" accomplices. But all eight inmates in the cell have denied the attempt, say police.

Officer Thomas Newsome discovered the attempt about 7:30 p.m. when he heard pounding and looked up at a rear window to see an inmtae watching him.

* * *

DETECTIVES rushed to the "bullpen" where they found a wet magazine stuck in the six inch diameter hole dug in the plaster. A leg of a steel chair had been broken off as a tool, they said.

An attempt to pry around a small ceiling ventilating hole in the toilet room was also discovered.

* * *

THE MEN, who range in age from 18 to 33, are being held for hearings on car theft and other violations. One has been sentenced and is awaiting transfer, said police.

Federal prisoners are held for temporary periods under a contract between the government and the city.

Palestine Flare-up Is U.N. Topic

Jewish-Arabic Clashes in Review

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Lebanon has demanded the Big Three Western Powers spell out in precise terms just why they have summoned an urgent Security Council meeting on Palestine.

Chief Lebanese delegate Charles Malik told the council he didn't want to agree to a meeting on the "Palestine question" without a specific reason.

Britain, France and the United States asked for the meeting because, they said outside the council, Israeli-Jordon border killings threatened Middle East peace.

The three nations called for the U.N. action after sharply denouncing an Israeli attack last Wednesday on the Jordan border village of Kibya. The Jordan government charged the entire village was wiped out, with 66 Arabs killed and nine wounded.

* * *

IN DEFENSE of her position in the tense dispute, Israel prepared her own appeal for U.N. action. She seeks an inquiry into all border incidents and violations of the 1949 Israel-Arab armistice agreements.

The council session was called primarily to place the Arab-Jewish dispute on the body's agenda and to invite Gen Vagn Bennike, Danish head of the U.N. Truce Observation Team in the Middle East trouble spot, to make a personal report. This had been suggested by the Big Three.

RI Offers Easement to City on P

The Rock Island Railroad will give to the city an easement for a street across the tracks on P Street under certain conditions, according to Guy C. Chambers, Nebraska counsel for the road, in a letter to Councilman Rees Wilkinson, chairman of the street opening committee.

The conditions.

1. Width of street to be such as to leave the baggage room undisturbed. North boundary of P could continue in a straight line but south line would be set a bit to the north.

2. Sidewalk on south side to be near curb to leave ample platform space.

3. City to bear all costs in connection with construction of street, including signal devices.

4. The Rock Island to bear the cost of operation and maintenance of gates and crossing.

5. The road to be allowed to block P and Q Streets for a period of 15 minutes and R Street for 10 minutes when necessary.

Chambers gives several reasons why the opening will be detrimental to the Rock Island. It creates, he says, additional liability in the form of one more crossing, also additional hazard. It opens to vehicular traffic a thoroughfare within a few feet of the main passenger depot entrance. It will create additional upkeep and maintenance expense.

"I consider it a fair and reasonable offer," said Wilkinson. "The Rock Island's position is stated clearly and intelligently. I am asking the council for direction as to future steps."

Both Drivers Lose Race as Law Steps In

Two 16-year-old boys used up their 12 penalty traffic points in one fell swoop late Sunday.

As a result, they will have their drivers licenses revoked for one year. The law passed by the last Legislature specifies that penalty for anyone acquiring 12 or more traffic violation points during any two year period. Various point penalties are assessed for different violations.

The youths were jailed after a police officer said he observed them racing old model cars at 75 m.p.h. on North 48th. Charged with negligent driving and driving in such a manner as to endanger life, limb and property, they were each fined $100. An abstract was sent to the state motor vehicle department of their offenses, each of which carry six penalty points.

Motor vehicle officials said there had been several out-state cases where the two year quotas had been used up all at once. The law went into effect Sept. 15.

Glassford Says 'Corner Turned'

"We finally got around the corner after a long siege."

That's how Coach Bill Glassford summed up Nebraska's grid win over Miami here last Saturday. He addressed the Quarterback Club at the University Club Monday noon.

"We hurt Miami offensively with some plays we had not showed before. Control of the ball in the third quarter helped considerably.

"Our kids tried hard and we defeated a fine club that had lots of speed," Glassford said.

Jay Prochaska gave the quarterbacks a report on Missouri, next NU foe.

"Nebraska has a tough scrap on its hands at Columbia next week as Missouri will be steamed up after losing to Iowa State last week," Prochaska said.

Ike, Cortines Dedicate U.S.-Mexican Dam

FALCON DAM, Tex. (AP)—President Eisenhower and the president of Mexico met Monday to dedicate together a massive international dam as a monument to a united hemisphere.

Eisenhower, in an historic hands-across-the-border meeting with President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines of Mexico, promised a peaceful world "unswayed by the cheap promises of totalitarianism, undismayed by its blustering threats."

It was the first major international appearance of Ruiz Cortines.

President Eisenhower motored to the dam from Sharyland, the lower Rio Grande valley estate of Texas Gov. Allan Shivers, where he spent the week end.

Both presidents were to speak at the dedicatory ceremony. Neither was expected to make a major address and, it was indicated early that both would dwell extensively on international and co-operative efforts for peace and progress.

Chest Makes 23 Per Cent Of Its Goal

The combined Community Chest-Red Cross drive reached 23 per cent of its goal Monday, the first day of the campaign.

At the first campaign luncheon, workers reported $109,681 toward the $482,266 goal.

"We are pleased at the progress shown in the solicitation," said Willard Townsend, general chairman.

"Quite a few firms met their employee's quotas the first day," he added. "It is our hope this year that solicitation and reporting be speeded so as not to delay the completion of the campaign, thereby entailing additional expense."

The advance gifts division of the campaign, which is under the direction of James Stuart, reported $45,986 toward its $250,613 goal.

The employees division, directed by Joe E. Fenton, had $59,994 of its $215,653 goal. Led by Mrs. Clark Jeary, the residential solicitation workers reported $3,701 toward their goal of $20,000.

* * *

THIS YEAR'S co-ordinated funds campaign of the Red Cross and the Community Chest will save the public between $6,000 and $8,000—the cost of operating a separate Red Cross drive. Separate spring campaigns of the Red Cross were formerly staged by the Community Chest staff with Red Cross paying $6,000 to $8,000 yearly for use of these mechanics.

Combined Drive Reaches $109,681 of Goal

6-State Meet Held on SCS

State conservationists from the six states served by the regional office of the Soil Conservation Service were meeting in Lincoln to discuss effects of Department of Agriculture plans to abolish the seven regional offices of the SCS.

Reorganizations plans announced by Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson would switch duties now handled by regional offices to state offices.

Present for the conference was Carl Brown of the national SCS office. Meeting with him were state conservationists from Nebraska, Kansas, North and South Dakota, Montana and Wyoming.

Cattlemen Meet Ag Aide Morse

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Policy-making members of the American National Cattlemen's Association meet in closed session with federal officials Monday to discuss problems of the country's ailing livestock industry.

Association President Sam C. Hyatt of Hyattville, Wyo., said about 100 association members from 23 states would meet with Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse and Harry Reed, livestock director of the Production and Marketing Administration, for discussions on federal drought and marketing relief activities.

Civil Defense Topic Of Lincoln Lions Clubs

Civil defense is to be discussed at a joint meeting of the Lincoln Lions Clubs after a 6:30 p.m. banquet Monday in the Havelock Methodist Church.

The banquet and civil defense program is sponsored by the Havelock Lions Club with D. W. (Bud) Hammond acting as chairman.

Portion of Air Base Nearing Completion

Work is almost completed on the taxi strip and parking apron in front of all hangars at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

Although the project has not yet been accepted from the contractors, only "small deficiencies" remain to be finished. Air base engineers said the job is "about 85 per cent" completed.

Italian Murder Plot Charge to Stand in Cloak-Dagger Case

NOVARA, Italy. (AP)—An Italian judge has rejected a move to dismiss charges against two Americans, accused with three Italians of the war-time slaying of their superior officer, Major William Holohan.

Pietro Cholvenda, court-appointed defense attorney, asked for dismissal at the opening session of the trial. He contended an Italian court has no jurisdiction over an American soldier for an alleged crime on Italian soil occupied by an enemy army.

Court President Francesco Sicher overruled the motion, saying the international law which the defense attorney cited did "not apply to common crimes."

The Americans, being tried in absentia, are ex-Lt. Aldo Icardi of Pittsburg, Pa., and former Sgt. Carl Lo Dolce of Rochester, N.Y.

The government accuses Icardi of planning the murder of the New York City major behind Nazi lines in northern Italy in 1944. Lo Dolce is accused of firing the fatal shots after an earlier attempt to poison Holohan failed.

Italy asked extradition of the two Americans to stand trial, but U.S. courts ruled that they could not be extradited.

A House Armed Services Subcommittee which investigated the slaying also ruled that there was no legal way to prosecute them in the United States.

As Judge Sicher called the court to order, Vincenzo Moscatelli, Communist member of the Chamber of Deputies, shouted in a nearby corridor:

"Free the Italians. They were only obeying American orders. They couldn't do otherwise."

The shouts were easily heard in the small court room, jammed with 300 newsmen and spectators.

Holohan, Icardi and Lo Dolce paracuted behind Nazi lines to arrange supplies for partisan groups in north Italy. The government charges that a dispute arose among the men as to how the supplies should be distributed.

Holohan, leader of the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) mission, objected to supplying Communist units. Icardi and Lo Dolce favored it, the government alleges.

A large supply of gold given the mission by the OSS for partisan activities was never recovered.

Lincoln's Grain Storage Space Expected to Be Doubled

West Central Co-op Will Start on Construction Soon

By JACK HART
Journal Farm Writer

Announcement of an expansion program by the West Central Co-Op Grain Company is the first of a series of construction projects expected to more than double Lincoln's grain storage facilities.

Aksel Nielsen, vice president and general manager of West Central, disclosed after a meeting in Omaha that construction will start immediately to double the company's present capacity in Lincoln. Nielsen said the move would add about 3 million bushels of storage space, the amount for which the company has been approved under the Commodity Credit Corporation's guaranteed storage program.

Approvals under this program also have been received by Equity Union Grain Company for 2,421,000 bushels, Gooch Feed Mill Company for 2 million bushels and Hill Fairchild Feed Company for 120,000 bushels. This total of 7,541,000 bushels of storage space would be added to the approximately 7 million bushels now available in Lincoln. This would be about a 107 per cent increase.

* * *

EQUITY'S construction probably will not start until some time next year, according to the company's attorney, Robert Guenzel. The expansion will come by extending from present tanks, he said. In this way, he pointed out, present loading equipment can service the additional facilities.

Gooch officials said that building plans are still in the discussion stage but they confirmed that the company will expand in accordance with its guaranteed storage plan approval.

L. H. Fairchild of Hill Fairchild said he expects to start construction right away for additional storage north of the present tanks.

* * *

ANOTHER application for 3 million bushels of space in Lincoln has been disapproved. The application had been made in the name of Emergency Grain Storage, Inc., for the Simpson, Evans and Laybourn Grain Company at Salina, Kan.

Under the guaranteed storage program, operators of elevators and terminal warehouses are guaranteed payment for storing a certain amount of grain. If this space is not sold they will be paid by the CCC for the unused space.

Another plan allows the operators to write off depreciation for tax purposes in the first five years rather than over 40 years as is normal, according to state Production and Marketing Administration officials.

This allows them to pay less for income taxes during the first five years than under the 40-year amortization procedure. Purpose of the plan is to leave more funds with which to pay for the expansion during the early years.

IT WAS POINTED out that the program encourages additional space in "sub-terminal" areas such as Lincoln in place of shipping it to larger terminals such as Chicago and Minneapolis.

Because of its central location and nearly perfect railroad schedules, Lincoln is considered in an ideal position for grain transportation, according to E. Creston Bailey, superintendent of public warehousing in Nebraska.

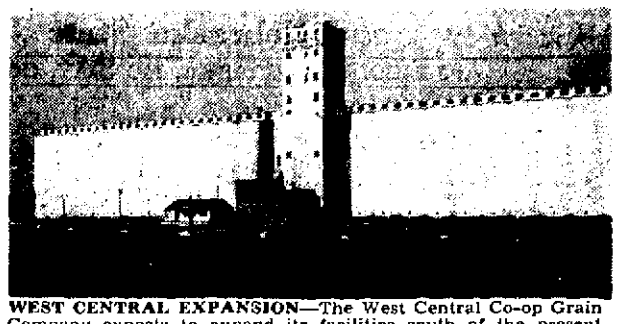

The railroad lines coming from all sections of the country in and out of Lincoln are superior to the lines in Omaha, Bailey said. And the railroad schedules are such that grain may be shipped almost any hour of the day, Mr. Bailey said.

Truck parking is more than adequately taken care of by the present Lincoln warehouses. Whereas the Omaha facilities are somewhat limited, as many as 100 trucks can be accommodated at one time by one of the Lincoln grain firms, Bailey said.

* * *

HARRY KING, rate expert of the State Railway Commission, said he thought Lincoln is the logical place to increase grain storage so far as rail service is concerned. Lincoln has very good train service both to the east and south and is closer to the main wheat belt than most other terminal points in the area, he said.

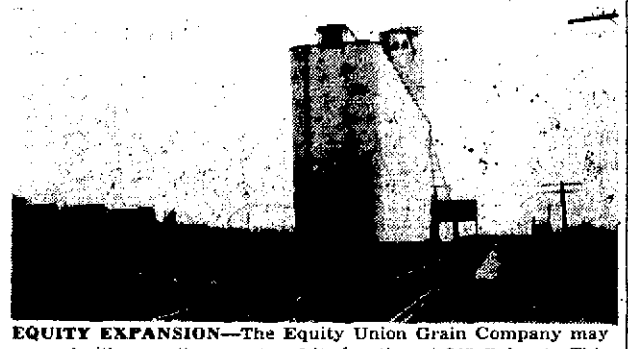

Lincoln has freight service from the Burlington, Union Pacific, Rock Island, Missouri Pacific and North Western railroads.

GOOCH EXPANSION—Expansion of the Gooch Feed Mill company is expected to be west of the present buildings into the old "circus lands" which were acquired recently by the company. (Journal Photo.)

EQUITY EXPANSION—The Equity Union Grain Company may expand either north or south of its location at 940 Calvert. This view shows the possibilities for expansion to the north.

No Kidding

REDONDO BEACH, Calif. (AP)—When Municipal Judge John Shidler rushed his 18-month-old daughter to a physician and declared she had butterflies in her tummy he wasn't kidding. The child got into her father's collection of mounted butterflies and ate most of the gaily colored specimens.

U.S.-Arabian Oil Workers on Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The Arabian American Oil Company (ARAMCO) said about 13,000 of its 15,000 native workers in Saudi Arabia have been on general strike since Saturday. ARAMCO said the strike was in protest against arrest of several workers who had sought to organize a union.

An ARAMCO spokesman here said the company had no reports of any violence or damage beyond "minor disorders." Reports received by the U.S. State Department said rioting oil workers had stoned an American air field bus near Dhahran on Saturday, but no Americans were injured.

ARAMCO said the strike was an outgrowth of several months of unrest directed primarily against Saudi Arabian law which prevents unionization.

1,000 Attend Witnesses Meet

OMAHA (AP)—Approximately 1,000 persons from eastern and central Nebraska attended a week end assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses here.

Featured speaker for the assembly was C. W. Rieger, connected in a supervisory capacity with the foreign service work and training if Jehovah's Witnesses, who gave the keynote address.

"Troubled times are upon us and the world," Rieger told the assembly. "The revealed word of Jehovah in this day is the greatest news anyone can publish. This assembly is arranged to give us just such assistance."

Speakers from Lincoln were John H. McLaughlin, Frederick J. Koch and Harold H. Hendee.

During an afternoon immersion service, 25 witnesses were baptized and will take up the ministerial work in Nebraska.

No Appropriate Office

Secretary of State Frank Marsh's office got an unusual request from a northeastern Nebraska youngster. Said the boy:

"I want to know if the tarantula spider is poisonous. Will its bite kill you? Please send me some information about tarantula spiders."

Deputy Roland Luedtke said he would look up the information for the youngster.

In PURSUIT of HAPPINESS

By J. GORDON ROBERTS

Mister Chodorov concludes his address before the "School of Living":

"This (the State) is the institution that modern thought tends to glorify as the savior of society. The reason for this tendency is obvious; the well-being enjoyed by those groups who benefit by the operations of the State encourages the cupidity of other groups, who press for advantages for themselves.

"The political part of the State, always conscious of the glory and advantages of power, are not averse to granting new privileges, provided the quid pro quo is commensurate. But, the granting of privileges is always at the expense of the economy, and in due time there is not enough coming in to satisfy all the claimants. By the time that point has been reached, the powers of intervention have so expanded that the political part of the conspiracy is independent; it must no longer buy support by granting privileges.

"It becomes self-sufficient, or, to be exact, becomes the residuary legatee of all privileges. Everybody works for the entrenched officials.

"Still, the State cannot produce a thing. And its subjects, whose right to property has been liquidated, lose interest in working. Production stops, or falls to the point of mere subsistence. For some time, the productive level can be raised, through coercion, so as to cover the cost of maintaining the political establishment.

"Eventually, however, the coercive powers cannot cope with the lack of interest in working, and the State collapses from mere malnutrition. The historians point up the fact that a disastrous war has marked the disappearance of every lost State.

"True, but leading to the war was a long period of a declining economy, accompanied by the moral deterioration of the subject economy, accompanied by the moral deterioration of the subject people. People have no interest in supporting an institution which robs them of their property. In fact, as economic slaves, their sense of self-respect, which is an essential to the fighting spirit, is gone. Thus did Rome fall. So, will the modern State."

6,900 AWOLs Sent Overseas

'Stern Policy Cuts Army's Runaways

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Louisville Times quoted Army sources as saying 6,900 convicted AWOL soldiers have been shipped to the Far East in a crackdown of runaways

That policy and others covering sterner treatment of runaways has reduced the AWOL and desertion rate 30 per cent since last January, the Times said in a copyrighted story

"The 30 per cent reduction, when applied to the Army's earlier admissions of 20,000 runaways a month, means that by the end of 1953 there will have been 80,000 fewer cases of desertion and AWOL than in 1952," the paper said

* * *

IT SAID THE Army's announcement came in a letter from T A Young, special assistant to the secretary of the Army in Washington, to U S Sen John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky)

Besides shipping convicted runaways to Korea and other bases in the Far East, the Army met its unauthorized absentee problem by

1 Increasing from $15 to $25 the bounty offered civilian police for the capture of runaways

2 Requiring that runaways must pay the cost of their apprehension, including rewards and travel expenses of guards sent to return them to camp

3. Requesting stiffer penalties for short-term absence without leave.

* * *

IN ONE RECENT case, Pvt Olen Mowdy's unauthorized absence from Ft Campbell, Ky, cost him $807 06 when guards had to go to Seattle, Wash, to return him across the country

The Times quoted Young's letter as saying most of the 6,900 men shipped overseas "have proved worthy and have established commendable records"

To support this, he said some 2 000 of the AWOL's were transferred to embarkation ports without guards

Young said "the true effect" of the stern new policies "will not be realized for some months," adding that an even sharper improvement might be noted as time goes on

Russia Invited to Big Four Conference

World's 'Tensions' Are Object

LONDON (AP)—The Big Three foreign ministers have invited Russia to meet with them next month to discuss Germany, Austria and European security. Winding up a three-day conference they also took dramatic steps to deal with all other major tensions threatening the world.

The three—U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Bidault—also invited Italy and Yugoslavia to a five-nation meeting on the Balkan powder keg issue of Trieste.

During these intensive meetings the top Western diplomats also discussed Korea, the possibility of a later meeting of the Western chiefs of state with Soviet Premier Malenkov, the turbulent Middle East questions with emphasis on the latest Israeli-Jordan border flareup and France's seven-year war against the Reds in Indo-China.

THE THREE were reported also to have agreed secretly on a new Korean peace conference plan aimed at ending the present deadlock over its makeup.

There was no official confirmation of this report by a diplomatic informant that the three had agreed on a compromise proposal calling for a seven-nation round-table peace conference including the United States, Britain, the Soviet Union, France, Red China, and North and South Korea. The informant indicated this was aimed at countering Communist demands for the inclusion of a number of neutral nations.

There also was an unconfirmed report that Britain's Prime Minister Churchill had sounded out Dulles and Bidault on how the American and French governments would feel if he should seek a meeting alone with Soviet Premier Malenkov.

DURING THEIR TALKS, the three also had called for an urgent session of the U.N. Security Council to discuss the threat to Middle East peace posed by the attack by Israeli troops Oct. 14 on the Jordan border village of Kibya in which Jordan claims 66 persons were killed.

In proposing the Big Four conference, the Western Allies brushed aside an earlier Soviet proposal for a big five conference — including Red China — to discuss world tensions. They commented the Chinese Communists would have their say at the projected Korean peace conference, whose object "precisely is to remove one of the major sources of tension in the Far East."

LUTHERANS BREAK GROUND—The Rev. E. W. Philippi, pastor of the Sheridan Lutheran congregation, turns the first spadeful of earth at the groundbreaking for the new $32,000 church at 37th and Sheridan. Taking part in the ceremony were William Stratemann (left), chairman of the building committee, and Arthur Duerschner, church vice president. Sheridan congregation has been organized since last January. It now has a membership of more than 100. (Journal Photo.)

New Pumps To Care for Added Water

Developments in the $8.5 million water expansion program feature new pumps and eqiupment at the "A" street station to take care of the big supply increase from Ashland.

Contract letting and bid askings for the day, concerning water, total $348,168.50.

Bids are being requested on two horizontal pumping units at an estimated $25,000, two vertical turbine pumping units at an estimated $36,000 and motor starting control apparatus estimated at $17,500, a total of $78,500. Two of the pumps are for replacement. Deputy Engineer Carl L. Fisher estimates increased capacity from installation of additions at "A" street at 26 million gallons daily.

THE IMPROVEMENTS will be of value next summer, even before completion of the big new transmission line.

One pump, for instance, will be assigned the exclusive duty of serving the new and enlarged transmission system from the plant east, a 24-inch trunk in "A" street narrowing down to 12 inches at 56th and Randolph with a 16-inch main in between. This system will eventually serve a large territory to the east.

Bids also are asked on one new well at Ashland. This, however, is not part of the expansion program. It is to replace a well which has become partially unserviceable. The estimated cost is $5,000. Purpose is to maintain present service from the existing 13 wells of the chain.

OF THE CONTRACTS, feature letting is the $242,469 contract to Roberts Construction Co. for the five million gallon reservoir at the 51st street station.

Dobson Bros. Construction Co., had the second low bid of $246,746.

The Roberts Construction Co. advised by letter that barring unfavorable weather conditions the reservoir will be ready in June, 1954.

For a 10-million gallon transfer pump at 51st, the second low bid, that of Layne Western for $17,864, received approval because of higher efficiency. Fairbank Morse bid $17,126. Electric equipment for the pump is to be furnished by W. E. Dingman by virtue of a low bid of $1,345.50.

Korean MIG Pilot Will Use Reward to Attend U.S. College

WASHINGTON (AP)—The young North Korean pilot who flew a Russian MIG jet fighter into United Nations territory last month will use part of his $100,000 reward to attend an American college.

An Air Force official said the pilot, 22-year-old Noh Keun Suk, has expressed a desire to study engineering in the United States. The school he will attend has not yet been selected.

Instead of paying the $100,000 reward to Noh in cash, the Air Force will set up a trust fund to finance his education, the official said. He emphasized that Noh will be able to draw the entire sum out of the trust fund at any time, if he desires, or he can wait until he graduates from college and collect the remaining balance in cash.

Noh, a senior lieutenant in the North Korean air force, flew the MIG into an air field near Seoul in September. He told reporters there he was not very well educated and would like to go to school in the United States. In this way, he said, he could be of greater value to Korea in the future.

He said he had not heard in advance of the $100,000 offer.

Noh will have no trouble entering the United States. Asylum in this country was one of the provisions of the original offer.

Court Overrules Two Moves for Rehearings

The State Supreme Court has overruled a motion for hehearing in the injunction suit of J. Sterling Adams against Wilson T. Adams and the Adams-Swanson Funeral Home at North Platte.

J. Sterling Adams sought to enjoin Wilson T. Adams from setting up a new business in competition with that of J. Sterling Adams for 10 years.

The District Court dismissed the suit and the Supreme Court last April upheld the dismissal.

In another Lincoln County case, the high court overruled the motion for rehearing in the damage suit in which the court previously reversed a $19,725 verdict for Buell and Claribel Borden against the General Insurance Company of America as result of a grocery store fire in May, 1951.

Polk Hospital Election Cost Under Estimate

OSCEOLA—Figures compiled by Polk County Clerk John I. Anderson place the cost of the recent special hospital election at $1,049, a figure less than was expected.

The county voters approved the issuance of bonds for the construction of the $200,000 hospital by a majority of about 300.

The greatest portion of the election costs was for the election boards which served in various precincts. The average expense involved in a regular or primary election runs from $2,200 to $3,000.

U.S. Employee Reduction Causing Low Morale 'Because of Handling'

The handling of reductions in federal employees has caused civil service morale to drop to a "very low" level, says the president of the National Federation of Federal Employees.

Luther Steward, in Lincoln to attend a banquet meeting of Local 406 of the federation, said the low morale of federal workers is not because the cuts in personnel were excessive but because of the way they were handled.

"Until the situation is outlined and employees know how they will be affected, we will continue to have demoralization," Steward declared.

* * *

THE UNION EXECUTIVE said it is the stand of his group that only the President, not department heads, should set the pattern for cutbacks of personnel. Steward said the present situation is typical of every change of administration from one party to the other.

"The new crop seldom has any knowledge of government," he said. "They feel that government is identical with business. It is not."

* * *

STEWARD LISTED three kinds of administrators who come in with political change:

1. The one who asks first and criticizes later. "He will go far and will have a good reputation with employees."
2. The one who talks first and finds out things afterward. "His mistakes will be costly."
3. The one who "knows nothing about government when he comes, never learns anything and then goes home and writes a book about the inefficiency of government."

* * *

STEWARD CITED the case of one cabinet officer (Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson) who announced at his first press conference that in the future he "would expect an honest day's work from all employees."

"I don't think he even knew the names of six people in his department when he said that," Steward said.

The union head's recommendation for cutting government personnel: "Before making any large general assumptons, learn what it's all about."

Steward said government employees feel the government should set up security rules through legislation, not through individuals.

"They all want the security program strengthened," he explained. "But they're suspicious of those who make so much noise about it."

Mail Fraud Case Goes To Federal Court Jury

The Federal Court trial of Dean W. Ballenger, charged in a mail fraud case, went to the jury Monday morning.

Judge John W. Delehant withdrew five of the 22 counts against Ballenger, directing a not guilty verdict on them.

The judge, who spent more than an hour instructing the jury, pointed out that in all the remaining 17 counts the charge is generally similar.

Substantially, the first part of each accuses Ballenger of devising and intending to devise a fraudulent scheme under which money would be obtained by false representation; the second charges the U.S. mails were used for the purpose of executing the scheme.

* * *

INTENT MUST be proved, the judge said. If it is found the plan was devised in good faith without the intent to defraud, the defendant is not guilty even if the plan resulted in financial disadvantage to those who went into it, the judge said.

He also pointed out that by the U.S. statute under which the case is brought, it also must be proved the mails were used.

The indictment charged generally that Ballenger advertised for men with a car to get into the advertising business and earn $85 weekly, giving the impression they were to be employed.

* * *

IT ALSO CHARGED the men were led to believe they were making a $360 deposit, to be returned; whereas it was actually payment for agricultural pamphlets printed by Ballenger. It further charged the men were required to sign contracts, without being given sufficient chance to understand them.

The 17 remaining counts involve a total of seven men.

New In Food Discussed

About 300 members were on hand as the Nebraska Restaurant Association convention went into its second day.

A panel discussion on "What's New in Good Food" featured the morning program, for which Joe Carter of Lincoln was chairman.

Participants were Dr. W. J. Loeffel of the University of Nebraska, Clara Gebhard Snyder of Lincoln, Pat McMann of Omaha, Richard Lutz of Lincoln and Reinhold Rebensdorf of Lincoln.

Feature of the afternoon session was a "Giant Food Show" with demonstrations. It was presented by Willlam O. Wheeler of Indianapolis, Ind., president of the National Restaurant Association, and Paul P. Logan of Red Oak, Ia., research director for the national group.

Clarence Walker of Atlanta, Ga., was to talk on "An Investment in Food, Friendship and Felicity" at the banquet Monday evening.

The convention got under way with a talk on "Civic Activities" by Frank Mueller of Minneapolis, Minn., former Lincoln man now a district manager for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Another early speaker was Arthur Morrill of Stromsburg, president of the Nebraska Turkey Federation.

The convention, being held at the Cornhusker Hotel, winds up with a business session Tuesday afternoon.

Today, 55% more students are in college than in 1940!

EDUCATION is becoming more and more important in the competition for good jobs and advancement. The number of college students reached a peak in 1949 under the G.I. Bill of Rights. However, the 2,116,400 students now enrolled mark an increase of 55% over 1940.

The increasing emphasis on education is just one of many important changes we've seen in recent years. More people are getting married—and at younger ages. We're raising bigger families. We're buying more homes than ever before. Our whole way of living is changing! This means we have much more to protect.

And life insurance is keeping pace and is constantly growing more flexible to meet our new needs.

For example—to meet the increasing interest of parents in sending their children to college, the life insurance companies have devised plans suited to a wider variety of family situations. Some are based on special educational policies, others on the family's present life insurance. All have the effect of assuring funds for college, whether the father lives or not.

More and more families are also using life insurance to provide a regular income at the death or retirement of the breadwinner. Others are using policies planned for particular needs, such as paying off the mortgage on their homes in case they do not live to complete the payments.

A suggestion: Have your needs or circumstances changed? Have you looked over your life insurance to see how it stacks up with your present way of living and the goals you and your family have set for yourselves?

Editorial Comment and Opinion

Israel and the Arabs Again

The uneasy, four-year truce between Israel and her Arab neighbors threatens to blow up in a renewal of full-scale warfare. And so, another piece of unfinished business ranking with Korea, Trieste and the division of Germany comes forcibly to world attention.

It dropped unexpectedly into the laps of United States, British and French foreign ministers meeting in London during the last week end. They promptly placed the unwanted baby on the doorstep of the United Nations.

The spark that touched off the latest threat was an Israeli raid across the Jordan border, in which, Jordan authorities claim, 66 persons, including women and children, were killed and nine wounded in the Jordan village of Kibya. The raid followed an earlier one for Jordan across the Israeli frontier which woman and two children were killed. Except for its ferocity, the Israeli raid was no different from literally hundreds of others which have occurred regularly along the Israeli-Jordan border since the signing of the U.N.-engineered truce in 1949.

In the 12 months ending in June, 1953, the United Nations Mixed Armistice Commission ruled on nearly 200 such border raids, with blame attached to both sides.

Issues involved are both local and international, and four years of truce have increased rather than decreased the atmosphere of profound hostility between Israel and her Arab neighbors — Egypt, Jordan, Syria and the Lebanon. Arab leaders frankly told U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles during his visit last spring that, while they have no sympathy with the Communist philosophy, their common enemy is Tel-Aviv and not Moscow.

The differences are more than religious ones between Moslem and Jew, and deeper than Arab resentment against this new Jewish state which sprang up in territory which the Arabs consider their own. The Arabs hear that Israel intends to continue to annex territory—at Arab expense. They resent Israeli refusal to accept responsibility for some 800,000 Arab refugees driven from their Palestinian homes, while at the same time Israel says it will welcome another 2,000,000 Jews.

Aside from her row with Jordan, Israel has been seriously at odds with both Syria and Egypt within the last few days. Egypt accused the Israeli of moving troops into a demilitarized zone in the Negev Desert bordering Egypt. A Syrian protest brought a halt to a vast Israeli hydro-electric project along Syria's border with the Jordan River. The 15-year project is designed both to irrigate the Negev and to drain Jordan River swamps which are age-old breeders of malaria.

A difficulty is that while each side points the finger of blame at the other, neither shows much real will for compromise.

An Economical General

At a time when the Air Force is hard taxed (as is the taxpayer) to keep up with the flying demands of Congressmen and other government VIPs it is refreshing to find a general, who has a plane at his disposal, willing to use public transportation to save the government several thousand dollars. The general is Albert Gruenther, commander of NATO, who came to Washington from Paris on official business last week—and on one of the regularly scheduled airlines.

As the Washington Post Sees It:

Benson Dilutes Conservation

An editorial from the Washington Post:

In his campaign speech at Omaha last year, President Eisenhower observed that the only trouble with the program of the Soil Conservation Service was that it was moving too slowly. It is hard to square this with what is being done to the SCS under Secretary Benson's new reorganization plan. Almost no one in the conservation field seems to favor what looks like a move to deemphasize the work of the SCS by placing it on a state rather than a regional basis. The plan has incurred the wrath of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, and it seems certain to give another handle to Secretary Benson's growing number of critics.

Under the reorganization the seven present regional Soil Conservation Service offices would be abolished, and the employes either reassigned to Washington or State offices or dismissed. The difficulty here is that the SCS program is peculiarly one of expert assistance, working through locally controlled conservation districts. Supervision on a state basis was tried some years ago, and it did not succeed because there simply were not enough qualified technicians available. If the trouble with a regional approach is that it is moving too slowly, how can it be speeded up by spreading the experts even thinner?

Soil conservation under the great retired director, Dr. Hugh Bennett, became almost a religion, and the program has been popular in both parties. Yet one of the first moves of Secretary Benson was to remove the present director, Dr. Robert Salter, from the protection of the career service and place him in Schedule C (at the same time that the sister Forest Service, quite properly, was left untouched). The fear arises that the objective is to water down the SCS and possibly to combine the conservation program with the Extension Service along with lectures on how to raise pigs. Another objection is that river basin and watershed development, which President Eisenhower has strongly supported, is inevitably on a regional basis. It will be difficult for the SCS, dispersed by states, to co-operate fully in this program.

This newspaper has supported other of Secretary Benson's reorganization plans when the benefits have been apparent. Certainly no such showing has been made respecting the Soil Conservation Service. Here is a field in which change merely for the sake of change could dangerously disrupt the important work already being done.

Interesting Figures

With rising discontent over the tax muddle in the state of Nebraska and a growing demand for a sales tax, figures compiled by the Federation of Tax Administrators is of more than passing interest to Nebraskans studying the tax situation.

More than 22 per cent of the total tax revenue of states came from sales tax in 1952. In that year, tax collections of the 48 states totaled $9,837,556,000. And the 31 states having sales and gross receipt taxes realized $2,229,295,000 from these sources.

Right now, 32 states have sales taxes. Since 1946, nine states have passed such tax laws. Nebraska is one of sixteen states which have no general sales tax but which add to their treasuries through cigarette, gasoline and liquor taxes. Two states, Oregon and Virginia, stand by themselves as states that not only have no general sales tax but also do not gain money from taxes on cigarettes or liquor. Their sole consumption tax is on gasoline

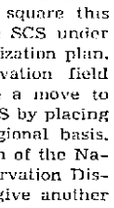

The highest rate charged by states is 3 per cent (ten states) and the most common rate is 2 per cent (20 states).

Balanced Budget a Hushed Whisper

WASHINGTON—Two big uncertainties face the business world, and the Eisenhower administration has not yet been able to remove them.

One relates to the manner in which the United States plans to meet the threat of an H-Bomb or A-Bomb attack. The other relates to the fact that, with certain types of taxes due to be repealed next year, the Treasury is confronted with a huge loss in revenue which can only be made up by some other kinds of taxes.

Lawrence

The news emanating from Washington in recent days has indicated pretty clearly that a balanced budget in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1954, is out of the question and also that for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1955, it is touch and go whether a balance can be achieved.

Business planning is difficult when there is uncertainty. Even if the news is bad on the subject of taxes, business men want to know sufficiently in advance to figure out how to adjust themselves to a new situation. Prolonged indecision, therefore, is not very good for the health of the business community.

* * *

A Bit Late

Administration officials hereabouts seem to think that decisions can be announced around the first of January. This is a bit late in planning for 1954's business operations. One reason for this delay is that the process of examining the thousand and one estimates from the different departments and agencies cannot possibly be concluded sooner. Another is that the government has always waited till Jan. 1 to disclose its budget. But already some informal impressions are being conveyed to the public which show the handwriting on the wall.

Thus, Joseph M. Dodge, director of the budget, who is noted for his caution and conservative approach, has just made a speech which tells that the wind is'nt blowing too favorably in the direction of budget balancing or tax reduction. He put it succinctly the other day:

"The facts suggest that we are in a costly trap of built-up dollar demands on the government for domestic purposes, many of them made mandatory by existing legislation, on which there have been imposed staggering expenditures for our national security. The source of payment is in taxes or in increased government debt."

Then the budget director goes on to say that every issue is subjected to the "impact of extremely varied views and objectives arising from special areas of interest or responsibility and all the public and congressional pressures which can be made to serve them."

* * *

Political Realism

This is a reference, of course, to the political realism which every administration must take into account. But Mr. Dodge also points out that from an economic standpoint drastic budget cutting isn't healthy. He adds:

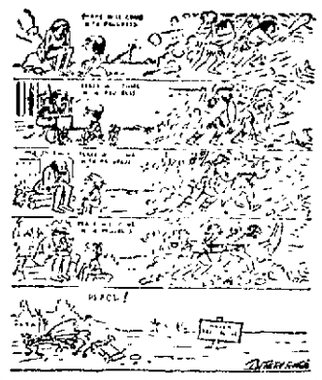

"There are the possible disturbing effects on the economy of action that is too abrupt —and we cannot ignore the large areas of human welfare that are so interwoven into government expenditures as to be substantially dependent upon them."

This point came to light earlier this week in a Wisconsin election, where the farmers elected a Democrat because of a fear that price supports might be taken away and a further drop in income brought about.

The Eisenhower administration is getting a taste of what is involved in the spending forced on the government by what Mr. Dodge calls "habits encouraged over the years" and by "the pressures that have been built up behind the theory of how much can be done to benefit a particular group or area as a result of persuading the government to finance it from taxes levied on all the people."

But entirely apart from the pressure for such local projects is the momentum behind a bigger defense program. The pressure is twofold—from those who want to spend money locally on civilian defense and other projects in continental United States, and from those who want to spend more money for big bombers to insure an effective retaliation or threat of it so that civilian defenses will not be so necessary.

It's a debate involving billions and billions —and the talk about balancing the budget in fiscal year 1955 or even later becomes a hushed whisper as plans of that kind are bandied about in inner circles. Meanwhile, business waits for some decisions and some leadership from Washington.

MORE OR LESS PERSONAL

— A Chat with the EDITOR —

An editor of the United States News & World Report was assigned to drive across the continent to find out how the country feels about business. He was told to take his time, talk with farmers, shopkeepers, anyone, and to report how it all added up.

* * *

The trip took him across Nebraska, as he reports:

"Now business isn't discouraged by bad weather and other troubles. This seems to be the story around Plattsmouth, Neb., where the drought has relieved plowing.

How the Wind Blows

Farmers are bothered. Trade seems to have slowed a bit. But people aren't pessimistic.

"Several farmers are building new homes. The country boasts three new schools and a new gymnasium. Retail sales are still above 1952. 'Three new businesses open for each one that closes,' according to the local editor.

"Lincoln, capital of Nebraska, is doing well, though not quite so well as last year in some lines. Housing permits are expected to be down about 25 per cent. An auto agency has just had a special sale to get rid of 75 cars. Used-car lots are crowded. But retail sales, in general, are up to 1952. New suburban markets are common along a main artery. Defense business is a stimulus. People expect the Air Force to spend $40 millions and employ 6,000 at a near-by base.

"Out across the state on U.S. 34 you run through York, Neb., which calls itself the 'chicken center of the U.S.' and see lots of new equipment there. At Grand Island, an ordnance plant has laid off some workers. But bank deposits are up. A morei is planning a $20,000 expansion. Farmers are thinking of switching from wheat into sugar beets. Irrigation, through ditches and sprinklers, helped save the corn in the drought. Westward on U.S. 30, alfalfa mills are turning out feed on a 24-hour schedule. A mill manager says: 'We're running through all the alfalfa we can get. Cattlemen are still buying from us, paying only $40 a ton compared with $70 last year. But we're also paying less for hay.'"

His conclusion: Westerners are "believers." Easterners are "doubters and worriers." "In most places, people who don't have their heads full of figures are meeting problems soberly but with optimism. . . . Recession has a big opponent across the land. His name is Confidence."

An illustration of how to break news gently, if not forthrightly, is offered by the Department of Agriculture in the case of Dr. Robert Salter, chief of the Soil Conservation Service. Thursday in Kansas City our reporter, Jack Hart, asked Secretary Benson if it was true that Dr. Salter had asked to be relieved of his job. Benson said he had no knowledge of this. An aide to Benson commented that this was "only a rumor." The next day in Washington, the Washington Post at our request tried to nail the "rumor" down. It was told at the Department of Agriculture that there was nothing to it. Then over the week end information officers of the Department were advised from Washington that "if asked," they should say that Dr. Salter had asked to be relieved of his assignment for health reasons.

Only a Rumor!

* * *

The question is an important one since there is another "rumor" — as well substantiated as the first—that Secretary Benson and Assistant Secretary Coke would like to replace Salter with a man amenable to their objective of whittling SCS down to inconsequential proportions. Actually, so the "rumor" goes, they have already offered the post to Dean William Meyers of Cornell University, whose understanding of conservation is negative, but he turned it down because the job has been reclassified to a political status.

* * *

Probably it will be the fate of the new U.S. Commissioner of education, Dr. Samuel Brownell, always to be overshadowed by his brother, the attorney general. This will do an injustice to Dr. Brownell's very considerable accomplishments in his own right and eminent qualifications for the high position. The Washington Post comments that "it would have been difficult for the President to choose anyone for the commissionership so satisfactory to so many professional educators." Dr. Brownell has been teaching teachers at Yale and Connecticut State Teachers College for many years, and brings a wealth of experience to his new assignment.

The Other Brownell

It must be especially gratifying to a Lincoln mother, Mrs. Herbert Brownell, to have two distinguished sons so high in the service of their country.

A Safety Measure

LINCOLN—I would like to ask R.M. (Public Mind, Oct. 15) if he ever heard of railroads. Some people seem to think that (however dangerous it may be) gasoline and ammunition can get to their destinations only by trucks. I say let the railroads do the hauling. They were running long before trucks. I have always felt that big trucks loaded heavily and especially those of ammunition and gasoline are the biggest death traps and ruination of our highways. Put heavy loads of all kinds where they belong, on the railroads. They are built for that and it will get there just as fast.

L.C.G.

Arithmetic Lesson

BARTLEY—This is to help Frances Taylor (Public Mind, Oct. 13) with her arithmetic. Her argument hardly hangs together. She is paying taxes to subsidize butter, then turning right around to pay four times the regular price. Yet she hasn't tasted butter for 10 years. Maybe if she would pay the price and taste the butter she could turn right around and pay lower taxes.

Don't get the impression that I like subsidies. In our area we receive 67 cents for our butter fat and butter sells over the counter for 89 cents. Margarine sells for 22 cents. If we bring butter down to 22 cents that gives the men in between their 13 cents but where does it leave the man who milks the cow? I don't blame city folks for buying margarine. You'd be surprised how many farmers sell their cream and use margarine. I can't hold with that sort of thing, for if the farmer can't do business with himself, how can he expect anyone else to? I never put margarine on my table but there is nothing wrong with it as food and why pay the price of butter? Butter is a stinkeroo affair now so maybe the number of dairy farmers it takes to produce our butter had best go out of business and move to town to compete for jobs.

If Mrs. Taylor would keep a record of all the cars that go past her house and use her pavement, she would probably find the biggest per cent of them are not farmers but truckers, businessmen, traveling salesmen and other city dwellers who help her pay for her pavement and who also use the farmers' (since when?) highway. The farmers pays taxes, too, you know.

Read It Again

LINCOLN—Your headlines in The Sunday Journal and Star startled me. As a reader I was unaware that the President of the United States could be "overhauled." These assaults I thought were for people of less importance.

I cannot imagine President Franklin Delano Roosevelt being "overhauled." When Roosevelt guided the ship of state, the waters were placid with a few ripples upon the shore. "My friends" were prosperous, the banks were safe, and there was a "chicken" in my icebox.

New Bar Center

URBANA, Ill.—The lawyers of America are in the process of building a bar center in Chicago. The initial buildings in this enterprise are an administration building to house the headquarters of the American Bar Association and affiliated organizations, and a great library and research center. What are the factors that lie behind this movement? It represents the fulfillment of a dream that has been nourished by the leaders of the bar over a considerable span of history. An adequate administration building in which to conduct the on-going activities of the bar is, of course, essential, but the establishment of a library and research center has implications that appeal to men's imagination.

We Americans subscribe to the premise, which is basic to the conception of all of our institutions, that ours is a nation governed by law. But somehow we have not quite envisioned the evolutionary characteristics of law: that law must adapt itself to the emerging needs of a society which is ever in the process of change; that law which is not responsive to these emerging needs tends to become no more than a set of rules that do not govern well. Law that governs well must, indeed, have stability—it must have enduring qualities; but it also must be adaptable to a changing environment.

It follows that as laws become obsolete, popular dissatisfaction with them tends to become articulate, and when felt needs for better laws and better law administration remain unrequited, popular dissatisfaction leads to a breakdown in law enforcement. Since popular discontent with the law today centers in the criminal law and its administration, it is befitting that the first major research project approved by the new center bears on criminal law administration. This undertaking is in charge of a committee of which Mr. Justice Jackson is the chairman.

The buildings that will compose this great center are being financed through the voluntary contributions of lawyers throughout the United States.

The vision of the bar for its new center is that it will become a focus of enlightenment on law—its function in society and the ever-constant need for improvement in its substance and administration.

Operations on the Aged

By Dr. Walter C. Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic And Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

A while ago a wonderfully spry little old lady of 90 was brought to me by one of her sons. She had cataracts, and was anxious to be operated on, but some of her children feared that she might be too old to stand the strain. After checking her over and finding her blood pressure was normal and her heart and kidneys in excellent shape, I told her ophthalmologist that she was very young for her years and probably a good risk. He operated; and, as we expected, the old lady had no trouble at all. Now she is reading and sewing and running her house as well as she ever did before.

Dr. Alvarez

Some years ago another "peppy," bright-eyed little old lady came to me. She was in her late seventies, and for over 30 years had suffered tortures from gallstone colics. One of her near relatives, an overly conservative physician, had always talked her out of the operation she wanted because he thought she was too old for it. Eventually, she insisted that even if the risk was great she was going to be operated on.

* * *

I TOOK HER PART, and told her relatives I doubted if she would have any trouble with the operation. Actually, she had her stones removed and next day, when I dropped in to see her, she was sitting there, all dolled-up with her hair beautifully done. As she said, she was going to give the interns a treat! As she was about to leave the hospital she said to me, "Just wait till I lay my hands on that fellow who made me suffer 30 years to no purpose!"

As I write this I have before me a recent number of the Journal of the American Medical Association in which there is an article by Dr. Sidney E. Ziffren. He sums up the results of operations performed on 429 old people, 16 of whom were 90 years of age and over; and 306 of whom were between 80 and 84 years. In the last few years, since the antibiotics have become available, the immediate mortality rate for the operations performed, many of them serious, have averaged about 11 per cent. This certainly is not prohibitive.

AS DR. ZIFFREN SAYS, age alone is not a contra-indication to a needed operation. The fact that a man or woman has reached the age of 80 or 85 years shows that the "Contractor put in very good materials." It shows usually that the person is wiry and strong, and likely to go easily through even a serious operation. Able surgeons do not deny an elderly person a needed operation even when he has a high blood pressure or a little heart trouble.

Among the major operations commonly performed on elderly persons are removal of cancers and repairs of ruptures. Women have to be operated on for cancers of the breast and the pelvic organs, and old men often have to have part of the prostate gland removed. Many old persons fall and break a hip and then often they may have to have the two pieces of the bone nailed together.

* * *

THE OTHER DAY I was talking to a friend who told me that her father, in his late 80's, had had cataracts, and had wanted very much to be operated on. His doctor, following an ancient and long-accepted custom, refused even to tell the old gentleman what was wrong with him because he thought that the information would come as a shock to him. As a result, the old man was compelled to live on for many years, blind, and unable to enjoy his newspaper and his books.

I think this was wrong because the old man was wide-awake and clearheaded until a stroke pulled him down in his 90's. He was perfectly competent to decide whether or not to accept the risk of having an operation on his eyes; and no one, not even his son, had a right to make the decision for him. He was the type of man who almost certainly would have said, "Go ahead and operate; what if I die? I don't mind dying, but I would hate to spend the rest of my days blind."

* * *

TO SUM UP AGAIN: I would say, never deny grandfather or grandmother a much needed operation simply because he or she is old. Remember that old people commonly stand an operation very well. Let the patient and the surgeon and perhaps a good heart specialist do all the deciding. The presence of high blood pressure should not discourage the surgeon unless it has done a lot of damage to the brain, the heart and the kidneys. The old man or woman who has had a number of little strokes is not a good risk.

ROBERT S. ALLEN Reports

Brownell Making Legal History

WASHINGTON—Attorney General Herbert Brownell is making legal history on two scores:

He has started enforcing a 10-year-old anti-corruption law under which previously there had not been a single prosecution.

Allen

His first targets are a group of former Justice Department officials, one of them an assistant attorney general.

Indictments in these precedent-setting cases are being sought from a federal grand jury that has been secretly considering them for weeks.

The long-buried law resurrected by Brownell is Section 284 of the Federal Criminal Code, which prohibits government employees, within two years after leaving that service, from acting against the U.S. in any matter with which they were connected while working for the government.

The statute was enacted in 1942 for the express purpose of putting an end to a growing practice of government attorneys' quitting and then turning right around and representing the individuals and corporations whose cases they had handled for the government. These instances had become particularly numerous in tax and monopoly suits.

A leading case being pressed by Brownell is based on charges that the former justice official acted as lawyer for a company which was under fire when he was a member of the Anti-Trust Division.

Brownell's vigorous crackdown is not limited to Washington. He has directed every U.S. District Attorney to construe the law broadly and to prosecute promptly every violation.

IN THE PICTURE—An Old White House visitor is again making frequent calls. He is George Allen, one-time member of the now-defunct RFC, and a crony of both President Truman and President Eisenhower.

Allen's return to the White House is at the direct suggestion of Major General Howard Snyder, the President's physician. The doctor feels Allen's sunny and genial companionship is very helpful in offsetting the strains and tensions on the President.

The one-time Mississippian has visited the President five times in the past three weeks.

Allen usually comes in the afternoon, entering the White House by a side door. On one visit he stayed for dinner. Allen plays bridge with the President and regales him with a limitless store of anecdotes and witticisms.

NEW KOREAN HEADACHE—President Syngman Rhee is staging another "filibuster." This time the aged South Korean ruler is balking at keeping the won pegged indefinitely at the rate of 280 to $1.

The Defense and Treasury Departments are insisting that the 280 to $1 rate be retained for several more years because that will help ease the U.S. financial burden in Korea, as well as keep a much-needed firm hand on its economy.

Such supervision is exactly what Rhee doesn't want.

The Court and the Jackpots

The legality of airwave giveaway programs, on an appeal by the FCC from decisions by lower courts, is being argued before the Supreme Court of the United States. It will be interesting to see if the court can come up with the right answer. Anyhow, the case should be heard in the mood of the quiz programs with a master of ceremonies:

Phillips

Court Clerk.—Good morning. I have a very interesting group on today's program. They're the justices of the Supreme Court.

Emcee. — Welcome to this session, boys. You look like very fine gentlemen. What's your business?

Justices.—We're jurists.

Emcee.—Jurists, eh? That's very interesting. The lack of applause is due to the fact none of you is from Brooklyn. Well, I remind you that if you say the lucky word . . beg pardon., that's another program. The jackpot question has been submitted by the Federal Communication's Commission, to which we are sending a year's supply of shaving cream. The question is this: Are quiz programs a lottery or any other form of gambling prohibited by law or otherwise properly subject to veto by the FCC? Remember you have only ONE YEAR to reach your decision. No prompting, please!

A Justice.—Why can't we have easy questions like everybody else?

Emcee.—After all, yerroner, how would it look to ask the Supreme Court for the right answer to a simple question such as 'Is a quorum a musical instrument, a tropical bird or a group of people?'

Justice.—We handed down a decision in that matter at our last session.

Emcee—Yes, but it was a tie with a couple of abstentions.

Counsel for the FCC.—If it please the court, may I rise to repeat our contention that the quiz program is being overdone, that it has gambling aspects and that the commission ban should be respected.

Counsel for Radio Interests. — The quiz program has become an American institution, sacred to millions. The jackpot stands as America's key to happiness. To interfere with it will kill morale and bring on mass unemployment.

Second Justice.—How would it bring on unemployment?

Counsel.—Because there are millions of Americans who do little else than participate or listen.

* * *

Third Justice (impatiently).—May I call the attention of both sides that there is a grave omission here . . . there's NO ORCHESTRA!

Emcee.—Why an orchestra?

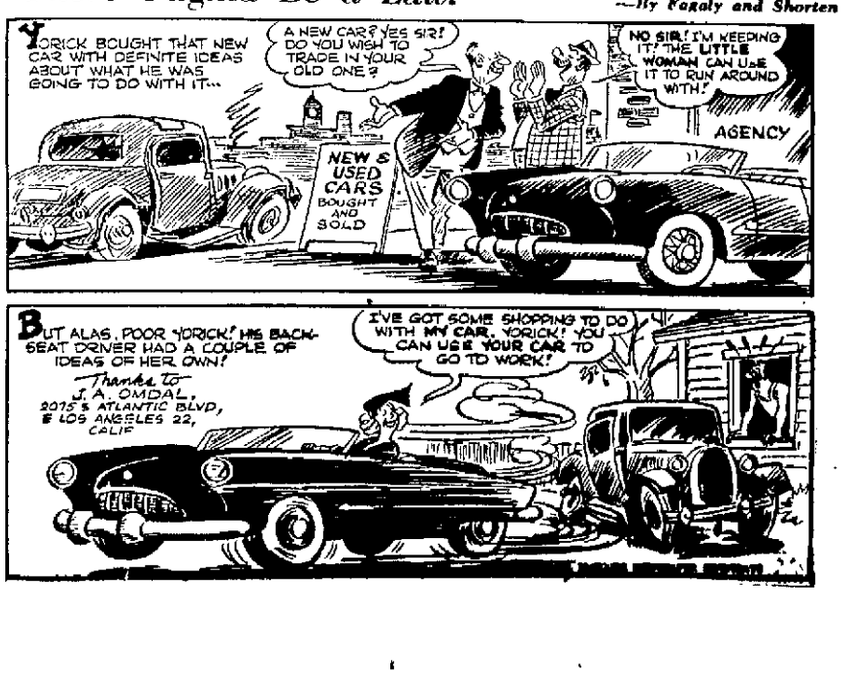

Justice.—In any issue relating to quiz programs an orchestra plays a tune and there's a chance to identify it.

Fourth Justice.—That's right. I remember in the last case of this kind we stood five to four that the selection was "Tea for Two" but were unanimous about "Kiss Me Again."

Fifth Justice (much later).—I suggest we adjourn. Let the counsel file further briefs . . . AND ON BOXTOPS!

There Oughta Be a Law!

Experts Say Drought to End

Change to Start in Month, But Dryness May Return

WASHINGTON (UP)—Two U.S. Weather Bureau experts said Monday they think the drought affecting the central and eastern United tSates is about over—but that it may return.

Jerome Namias, chief of extended forecasts, and Glen W. Brier, chief of meteorological statistics, gave their views in a joint, copyrighted interview with the magazine U.S. News and World Report. Their replies to questions were not individually identified.

"We think," they said, "That conditions from now on will favor a gradual alleviation of the dry weather over central and eastern portions of the country.

"We think it will get started within the next 30 days, but we can't say whether this change will be temporary and that we won't return to a dry condition later on."

* * *

THEY WERE ASKED whether the current drought means that the country is in for "a cycle of drought" similar to that of the early 1930s, and gave this reply:

"Well, we've been having drought in some areas for several years and it does look like a drought condition is building up. It is hard to call what is happening a cycle, however. That depends on how you define 'cycle.'

"If you want to consider a cycle as a definite sequence of events occuring a certain number of years apart, we don't think there is a cycle of drought.

"We can't be precise. All we know is that we frequently have a series of dry years, and then a repetition some years later."

* * *

NAMIAS AND BRIER were asked whether experts can tell if this year's droughts will carry over into 1954. This was the reply:

"No. That is where we come to the break in our understanding of our problem. No one fully understands why in some cases drought will exist for a period of years, while in other cases a drought is more temporary. . . .

"We don't know what causes these dry spells and wet spells that seem to alternate over periods of years."

One theory, they said, is that sun spots affect long-term weather, but the evidence "is rather inconclusive."

650 Attend Church Rites On 75th Year

SEWARD — Approximately 650 persons attended services here Sunday commemorating the 75th anniversary of the Friedens Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Attending the services Sunday was George Meinberg Sr. of Seward, who was one of the eight original members of the church's first congregation formed in 1876.

Dr. Louis W. Goebel of Chicago, Ill., who served as president of the Evangelical and Reformed Church for 15 years, spoke on "The Question Way of Life" at the morning services.

The Rev. Arthur Crisp, pastor of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed Church in Lincoln, chose "The Church Eternal" as his sermon topic for the afternoon service.

One of the Seward church's "sons," the Rev. Elmer Brinkmeyer, pastor of the Norfolk Congregational Church, spoke on "The Faith That Fulfills" during evening services. Dr. Goebel also spoke.

The Women's Guild prepared and served a dinner at noon in the church parlors.

The Rev. M. L. Seybold is the present pastor of the Friedens Evangelical and Reformed Church.

From its original congregation of just eight members, the church has grown to a membership of more than 400 persons. A modernization program was recently completed in the church.

SAC Wives to Study Effects of Moves

OMAHA (AP)—A committee of wives of Strategic Air Command personnel is undertaking a study of the effect on families of rapid deployment of personnel to distant areas for periods of training.

The committee, made up of wives of officers and non-commissioned personnel will be headed by Mrs. Curtis E. Le May, wife of the commanding general of SAC. The committee plans to visit several SAC bases soon, starting with Carswell AFB, Ft. Worth, Tex., a SAC spokesman said.

Carswell was the first of the SAC bases to augment its small personal affairs staff with help from volunteers to relieve hardships caused by dislocations and military movements.

Too Loud for Them

SINGAPORE (AP)—Singapore's 400 postmen threatened to take a strike ballot if the government tries to make them wear uniforms with red stripes down the side of the trousers. At a meeting, the postmen termed the new uniform more suitable for circus clowns than mail carriers and voted to reject them.

Liquor Commission Is 'Disturbed' By Low Fines; Fairmont Case Cited

Situations where persons arrested for selling liquor illegally are fined considerably less than the cost of a license are "disturbing" to the State Liquor Control Commission.

Commission Chairman Tal Coonrad said, "There is nothing more discouraging about liquor law enforcement than to go out of the way to get a job done and then find a fine imposed which isn't commensurate with the charge."

Commission records showed that William B. Lowell of Fairmont was fined $50 and costs in Fillmore County Court for selling alcoholic beverages without obtaining a Nebraska liquor license.

* * *

YET COONRAD pointed out that it would have cost Lowell $500 to $700 for a license plus a possible $200 occupation tax.

Coonrad said this was unfair to liquor dealers who buy licenses and abide by the law.

Lowell was arrested on Oct. 3 at the Best Hotel in Fairmont after he sold two commission inspectors six bottles of beer in their hotel room, according to commission records.

The inspectors reported that Lowell told them he kept beer only for the accommodation of hotel customers. Fairmont is a "bone dry" town.

* * *

FILLMORE COUNTY Judge Guy A. Hamilton imposed the fine after Lowell pleaded guilty.

Ed J. Nickolite, chief enforcement officer for the commission, said that what "bootlegging" there is in Nebraska mostly consists of sales of tax-paid liquor in "dry" towns.

He said there is very little of the illegal making of alcoholic beverages such as is reportedly plaguing many eastern states.

Dismissal of Shooting Case Is Appealed

An Omaha man, Bernard Naegele, appealed to the State Supreme Court from action of a Douglas County District Court in an accidental shooting case.

The trial court dismissed the case brought by Naegele against Lowell Dollen and D. H. Dollen, partners in the Dollen Hardware Company, and Walter Waseckowski.

Naegele charged that he was accidentally shot while in the hardware store two years ago and that the Dollens were negligent in permitting Waseckowski to place loaded shells in the chamber of a shotgun.

Naegele, who said he received 200 skin puncture wounds in the leg from the pellets, seeks judgment of $20,000.

Mother of Missing Blair Girl Collapses

OMAHA (UP)—Mrs. Glen Tibbits of Blair, whose 14-year-old daughter Cecelia disappeared Oct. 8, was in "satisfactory" condition in an Omaha hospital, after a collapse.

The girl's father said the "terrible strain of all this brought on her collapse." He said his wife has a weak heart.

It is not known whether the girl met with foul play or left voluntarily.

THUNDERSTORMS—Mostly cloudy skies Monday night and Tuesday will bring scattered showers or thunderstorms over the state Monday night and in the east Tuesday, along with cooler temperatures. Another Deficit Predicted

$2 to 5 Billion Seems in Prospect

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional sources said another federal deficit next year is indicated in the Eisenhower administration's advance budget prospects.

Final decisions have not been reached, they said, but administration officials wrestling with the problem are talking of this general outlook for the budget to be proposed next January:

1. Despite all efforts to balance the budget, defense spending and scheduled tax reductions probably will add up to a red ink figure between $2 to $5 billion for the year starting next July 1.

2. But the "cash" budget, which includes Social Security trust fund accounts and other items not counted in the regular administrative budget, probably will show a balance for the first time in several years.

THIS PICTURE came from congressional sources who are in close touch with administration fiscal planning.

Revsed figures for the current year, ending next June 30, indicate spending of $72,100,000,000 and revenue of $68,300,000,000. This would be an administrative deficit of $3,800,000,000. The "cash" deficit for this year is estimated at a half-billion dollars.

Congressmen said the administration would feel it has made good progress, although not as much as hoped, if it can eliminate the cash deficit next year in the face of scheduled revenue losses. They said administration officials are banking strongly on a balanced administrative budget for the following year.

THE CASH budget includes income and outgo under the Social Security program and other special accounts which are kept separate from regular funds. These programs generally are taking in more money than they are paying out. This trend would be accentuated next year under a scheduled increase in social security taxes.

Secretary of Treasury Humphrey and other officials have said the cash budget, because it measures total government intake and outgo, is the important factor in determining whether government fiscal policies lead to inflation.

IT IS NOT the budget meant, however, in popular talk of budget balancing.

As compared with this fiscal year, the administration faces revenue loss next year of $3,600,000,000 from tax cuts set for Jan. 1. These are a 10 per cent reduction in individual income tax rates, and expiration of the excess profits tax on corporations.

On April 1, still further fiscal year losses of $2,200,000,000 in revenue are scheduled. These are cutbacks in corporation income tax rates and in some excise tax rates.

Your Hands Will Look Lovelier . . . Feel Softer with Lanolin Plus Hand Lotion

You can't imagine what beauty you have in the palms of your hands until you use LANOLIN PLUS HAND LOTION. For Lanoline Plus, containing the right amount of lanolin with its valuable esters and cholesterols, penetrates your skin and helps to replenish essential oils that your hands need to make them feel and look smooth as silk.

It's no wonder that Lanolin Plus is so effective. Years ago on the plains of Australia, during sheep-shearing season, the hands of the men were dry and calloused. But almost immediately an amazing phenomenon occurred. Their hands became softer and smoother. The secret? Lanolin, the closest duplication of the natural oils of our human skin is found in the fats and oils of the sheep's wool. As the men sheared the sheep, lanolin was absorbed into their skin. And gradually their hands became softer and smoother. Today chemists have found a way to blend a fabulous amount of lanolin into Lanolin Plus. The formula holds an exclusive United States patent.

Treat your hands to this entirely new feeling of petal-freshness and softness. LANOLIN PLUS HAND LOTION works quickly, then disappears like magic. Only one dollar, plus tax, at all cosmetic counters.

Lanolin Plus Does Wonders For Your Skin

Your Skin Wakes Up to New Beauty and Exquisite Softness with Lanoln Plus Liquid

One of the most serious beauty problems women face is premature wrinkles, due to excessive dryness or climatic conditions. The longer this dry condition exists, the deeper and more permanent the premature wrinkles become. Now with LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID, you can help replenish oils that are so essential to a smoother, more youthful-looking complexion.

Ordinary harsh cleansing removes the skin's natural lubricants—esters and cholesterols—and in many cases, may further dry out your skin. All you have to do is soften the skin and premature wrinkles become less apparent. Try this wonderfully refreshing facial with LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID at night before you go to bed. Your face will feel relaxed and refreshed—and you'll feel a glowing kind of youthful vitality in your skin. And when your skin feels this good, you just know it looks radiant and exquisitely smooth!

Hold a hot washcloth to your face and neck for about a minute to open pores. Notice how refreshed and relaxed your face feels.

Warm the bottle of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID under hot water tap. Briskly massage into face and neck until skin begins to tingle.

After a few minutes, wipe your face petal-fresh.

Rinse your face and neck with cold water. Then gently massage a few drops of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID into your skin before retiring. Its gentle, thorough action will work while you sleep . . . and you'll awake next morning to find new radiant beauty in your skin. There's no need to let premature wrinkles make you look older. Use LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID faithfully every day. You'll find it at all cosmetic counters for only one dollar, plus tax.

Make Your Skin Softer, Smoother "All Over . . . with Lanolin Plus Body Lotion

From the time of the early Egyptians, women who have longed for loveliness have tried to keep their skin soft and smooth with various fragrant oils. Now for your everyday enjoyment, there is a heavenly body lotion, enriched with lanolin to keep every inch of you "petal-soft." No matter what the weather, this creamy-smooth liquid penetrates, and protects your skin from the drying effects of sun, wind and dry air.

Never before was there such a luxuriant lotion — so delicately scented, so gently effective, as LANOLIN PLUS BODY LOTION. You'll love the way it helps replenish oils, dried out from frequent bathing. A superb blend of protecting, softening oils and lanolin, this new body lotion makes you feel refreshingly relaxed, lovely all over!

It takes so little . . . spreads so easily . . . and is so economical that you'll want to use it faithfully. Don't let a day go by without using your LANOLIN PLUS BODY LOTION. You'll find the generous twelve-ounce bottle only $1.50 plus tax, at all cosmetic counters.

You owe it to yourself to discover the wondrous things Lanolin Plus products can do for you. When you use them faithfully, you'll have the key that brings forth skin and hair beauty you may never have realized you had!

Lanolin Plus Agrees with Your Skin . . . Makes It Feel Better . . . Look Softer, More Youthful

The lovely, smooth skin of a baby is naturally soft and supple because Nature's inner lubricants keep it that way. But as time goes by, these natural oils become less plentiful and, in addition, are removed by sun, wind, dry indoor air and ordinary harsh cleansing. Years ago it was found that the wool of sheep contains a substance known as lanolin, which, because of its rich base of beneficial esters and cholesterols, is most similar to the natural oils of our human skin.

The chemists who created LANOLIN PLUS planned their formula to include highly refined lanolin and other skin beautifying ingredients. Because of its thorough action, it helps to maintain the proper lubricating balance both for complexions that are too dry or too oily. It also supplies normal skin with the priceless softening influence it needs to stay soft and silken-textured.

With your very first touch of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID, you'll see for yourself how exquisitely soft and fresh your skin can feel. Words can't describe that feeling, but once you know it, you'll never want to lose it. If you use LANOLIN PLUS faithfully and regularly, you'll find that harsh dryness will disappear . . . premature wrinkles due to excessive dryness or climatic conditions become less noticeable.

Use LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID to pamper your skin overnight while you sleep . . . use it as a cleanser to make your face feel cleaner, fresher than ever before. And you'll find it does wonders by helping to lubricate your skin after natural oils have been removed by sun, wind and harsh cleansing. If your heels, insteps or toes are calloused or rough, a relaxing foot bath, followed by a LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID massage will soften and soothe the dried out areas.

The most feminine desire in the world is to stay lovely and youthful looking. Now—with the softening qualities of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID—all women can help achieve this desire. For this almost-miraculous Liquid replenishes the oils that help to deter dry skin with its devastating effects.

Take a long, objective look at your complexion. Is it everything you want it to be? Or would it welcome a chance to absorb some of Nature's own kind of lubricants? Lanolin is the closest duplication of these natural skin oils. So don't wait another day to discover the wonders of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID. One dollar* is such a tiny price to pay for the glorious feeling of having skin that now is soft and caressable, and more youthful-looking than you ever imagined!

Your Hair Will Be Lovelier, More Manageable, If It's In Good Condition

All the new "hair-do's," rinses, permanents and bleaches in the world can't make your hair look prettier if it isn't in good condition. Simple basic care of your hair is your first step toward hair beauty. And LANOLIN PLUS FOR THE HAIR should be your first thought.

If your hair is dull, dry and unmanageable, it will surely welcome the refreshing, softening influence of Lanolin Plus. For lanolin is the closest duplication of Nature's own skin lubricants. Too often the gleaming highlights and lovely softness that Nature meant for your hair to have are taken away by various kinds of harsh hair treatment, water, and the drying effects that come from exposure to sun or wind. When that happens—and even before it happens—look to LANOLIN PLUS FOR THE HAIR to supplement precious, natural oils and bring out sparkling highlights.

Give your hair a chance to look its best. Get LANOLIN PLUS FOR THE HAIR soon. At all cosmetic counters, only a dollar plus tax.

There's New Softness for Dry Skin wth Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream

Time was when there wasn't much that women knew about retarding a dry skin condition that promoted premature wrinkles. But now that Lanolin Plus has come into the beauty picture, you can keep your skin softer and lovelier than you ever imagined! For LANOLIN PLUS CLEANSING CREAM FOR DRY SKIN is compounded to soften your skin as it cleanses it. Lanolin Plus Cleansing Cream containing a superabundance of Lanolin Plus, with its rich base of esters and cholesterols, penetrates your skin and helps to replenish oils that deter the dryness that promotes premature wrinkles.

You'll love the feel of this velvety cream while it works its wonders on your skin. And you'll love the fresh, clean feel your skin has after you've tissued away the dirt of the day.

If your skin is dry, don't wait another day to give it the wondrous help of Lanolin Plus. You'll find softness and beauty you never knew were there. LANOLIN PLUS CLEANSING CREAM FOR DRY SKIN is so economical, too. Only a dollar plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Skin Feels Cleaner—Fresh-As-A-Daisy—with Lanolin Plus Liquid Cleanser

The fresh, clean feel of your skin after its first cleansing with this creamy liquid will make you promise yourself that you'll never again bother with ordinary harsh cleansing. For LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID CLEANSER penetrates your skin and softens as it cleanses, with never a harsh, drying effect. Instead, it offers the wonderful lubricating influence of lanolin itself that combats drying conditions due to lack of natural oils.

There's good reason why lanolin is so beneficial to your skin. Lanolin is obtained from sheep's wool and is most similar to the natural oils of our human skin. So when Nature's own lubricants are so closely duplicated, it's no wonder that your skin responds quickly and eagerly.

LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID CLEANSER should be a "must" in your daily skin care. It's amazingly effective . . . delightfully refreshing . . . and so economical! Only one dollar plus tax at all cosmetic counters.

Reveal Your Hair's Natural Loveliness with Lanolin Plus Hard Water Shampoo

Perhaps you are one of the many women who are at a loss to know how to keep their hair and scalp scrupulously clean, yet preserve the natural oils that are essential to soft, glistening hair.

Now, LANOLIN PLUS HARD WATER SHAMPOO answers this problem for you. For this is the shampoo that contains a superabundance of lanolin, the nearest duplication of nature's own skin oils. It not only helps lubricate scalp and soften hair, but at the same time it lathers beautifully in the hardest water. Its rich, lanolized suds thoroughly whisk away dirt and grime so that the hair is left soft and silken and gleaming, as it should be. Just as the shampoo cleanses, its oil pampers the hair.

It's economical, too, because it's fast-acting, and ordinarily only one application is needed each time you wash your hair.

All cosmetic counters can supply you with LANOLIN PLUS HARD WATER SHAMPOO for only a dollar. You'll never know how really clean, soft and manageable your hair can be until you use this thorough shampoo, containing such a generous supply of lanolin.

By WALT DOBBINS

This game of football is a funny business.

Who would have predicted last Sept. 1 that Bill Meek's Kansas State Wildcats would be undefeated in Big Seven play at the halfway mark? Who would have dared to assert that Iowa State would bump off the Missouri Tigers?

Yes, there were some startling developments and complications arising after last Saturday's final returns were in. In view of K-State 28-14 win over the Colorado Buffs; Iowa State's 13-6 upset of Missouri and Oklahoma's 45-0 romp over Kansas, we have come to the following conclusion:

1. Kansas State appears to be a cinch to at least tie for second place in the final conference standings.

2. Oklahoma should be a shoo-in for its sixth straight loop crown.

3. The final status of Missouri and Nebraska will hinge upon the outcome of their clash Saturday at Columbia, Mo.

Nebraska's Cornhuskers finally dented the victory column with a narrow 20-16 win over the Miami Hurricanes. Coach Glassford had hoped after the victory to catch Missouri off-stride this week end but Iowa State's Cyclones beat the Huskers to it.

"That's going to make it all the harder for us," the Husker mentor stated. "I only hope our squad will continue to improve since Missouri is certain to bounce back after losing to SMU and Iowa State."

☆ ☆ ☆

BUD WILKINSON, having solved his backfield difficulties, shouldn't have a bit of trouble with Colorado this week at Norman. The Buffs have already dropped three conference games —Missouri, Kansas and Kansas State—and they haven't the squad to cope with the Sooners.

All the other Big Seven teams will battle schools from outside the conference.

Southern Methodist should dispose of Kansas at Lawrence while Iowa State will get the nod over Drake. Kansas State can't afford to be careless against Wichita but their momentum should carry them through.

Corky Taylor, Kansas State's flashy ball toting wizard, leads the league scorers with 37 points. Right behind him is Veryl Switzer, the hula-hipped Wildcat and Emerson Wilson of the Colorado Buffs, each with 30 points.

Texas Women's Title to Rawls

FT. WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Petite Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S. C., playing her irons accurately, won the 18th annual Women's Texas Open Sunday with a 5 and 4 victory over Ft. Worth amateur Polly Riley.

The little professional, former University of Texas co-ed, took a 2-up lead on the morning 18 while shooting 74—one under women's par for the 6209-yard River Crest Country Club course. She was one over par for the 14 holes needed to close the match.

Betsy won $500 with the title.

Korinek Catch Key Play; Pass Defense Needs Work

By WALT DOBBINS
Journal Sports Editor

Shattering the Miami tradition of being a sizzling second half scoring aggregation, Nebraska's Cornhuskers won their first game of the 1953 pigskin season with a narrow 20-16 triumph over the Hurricanes, before a crowd of 39,000 victory-starved partisan fans.

Nebraska accomplished this act by holding on to the football during most of the third quarter and slightly over half of the final period.

The key play in the victory was Korinek's interception of J. B. Johnston's pass late in the final period. The Huskers got the ball back 18 yards and Nebraska penetrated into Miami territory before they were forced to punt on the final play of the game.

☆ ☆ ☆

NICK ADDUCI and Ray Novak should be in shape for the Missouri game this Saturday. Whether Ted Connor will be in top condition remains to be seen. The big tackle from Hastings suffered a pulled ligament that only rest will cure. Tackle Jerry Minnick was also shaken up but not injured.

Nebraska, absent from its home stadium for three weeks, looked a lot different to NU fans last Saturday. Even so they didn't measure up to their performances against Illinois and Pitt in some departments.

There were, however, only two Husker fumbles although in each case the ball was recovered by Miami. Bordogna's bobble in the fourth period, coming after he bumped into a backfield mate, set up the pins for the Hurricanes' second touchdown.

It was apparent from the stands that Nebraska's pass defense will either have to undergo an overhauling or Coach Glassford will have to uncover some more alert defenders.

Time and time again the Huskers appeared to have the territory aptly protected but failed to bat down the ball. They nailed the receiver but only after the Hurricanes had picked up valuable yardage.

● ● ●

WE ARE COGNIZANT of the fact that it is far better to nail the receiver to the cross than to let him get behind and go all the way but in so many instances Saturday there was adequate Husker protection between the receiver and the goal but no aggressiveness asserted toward the receiver or passer.

Maybe the boys don't see as well on the field as we do up above.

The Missouri scout saw what was going on, however, and with Tony Scardino doing the pitching for the Tigers down at Columbia Saturday it could be a mighty uncomfortable afternoon if the MU aerials start clicking.

Scardino didn't have too good a day against Iowa State completing six of 19 throws for 70 yards but he is usually better than that. Iowa State succeeded in stopping Scardino by rushing him and one of Tony's passes (the only one that was intercepted) into the flat should never have been thrown.

Our Huskers are all through with non-conference foes and can now concentrate on loop play. They lost their only Big Seven test to K-State but now have a chance to redeem themselves on successive Saturdays against Missouri, Kansas, Iowa State, Colorado and the defending champion Oklahoma Sooners.

NU Officials Pleased by Decision

University of Nebraska athletic officials Monday hailed the Orange Bowl tieup for the Big Seven Conference.

Coach Bill Glassford of Nebraska praised the move as "a very fine thing."

"It provides an incentive for the boys," he said. "It is a compensation for the team which wins the championship. It is a reward for their hard work during the season.

"Also it has a fine educational value from travel. It gives the boys a chance to see how the universities in other sections of the country are operated."

"The Big Seven Conference's tieup with the Atlantic Coast loop for a New Year's game in the Orange Bowl certainly meets with my hearty approval," Husker athletic director George (Potsy) Clark declared.

"The Orange Bowl is my favorite for several reasons," Clark added. "It provides a wonderful trip for the boys and takes them to the tropical south to a beautiful part of our country.

"The Atlantic Coast conference advocates rules similar to the Big Seven and provides an annual bowl game for the two loops thus elliminating the necessity of 'shopping around'," Clark added.

● ● ●

"I believe the Big Seven tieup with the Atlantic conference and the Orange Bowl people will turn out to be a very fine arrangement," Dean Earl S. Fullbrook, Nebraska's faculty representative declared.

"It is my belief that it will be a better game for the boys from this sector," Fullbrook added, "It is a better than the other bowls because it will give the boys a more attractive trip. This was taken into consideration when the pact was made.

"I also feel that our conference is dealing with a fine bunch of people at Miami. The game may not attract as many fans or give us as much money as some of the others but it has other compensations. It will give our conference relationship with the Atlantic Coast schools that should develop into a keen rivalry over the years."

Everybody Is Pleased Says Big 7 Boss

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Everybody seems well pleased with the arrangement," said Reaves E. Peters, executive secretary of the Big Seven. "We still have a number of details to work out, but none of them is of major importance."

Peters said two members of the Big Seven faculty would meet with two representatives of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the "near future" to complete details. Dr. R. I. Throckmorton of Kansas State and Dr. Earl S. Fullbrook of Nebraska will represent the Big Seven.

"I am glad the Big Seven is once again sanctioned to play in bowl games," Coach Bud Wilkinson said.

He refused comment on the prospects of a meeting between his Sooners and Maryland, the leading team in the Atlantic Coast League.

At Ames, Ia., Athletic Director Louis Menze of Iowa State College said the new pact "definitely looks like a workable arrangement."

"It is the hope and wish of everyone concerned that this will be the start of an extended series," Menze said. "We are heartily in favor as it will tend to relieve the pressures from various bowl groups on the Big Seven Conference championship team each year."

Don Faurot, director of athletics and head football coach at the University of Missouri, hailed the tieup as " a fine thing."

"I'm happy about it for three reasons," Faurot said. "First, it ties together two fine conferences with excellent teams which don't meet each other very often. Second, the site of the game, Miami, is a place which the players will enjoy. And third, I have always been in favor of bowl games where they are under the control of the college and where the money is divided among all conference members, so the rich don't get richer and the poor poorer."

The University of Kansas' football coach, Jules Sikes, said he thinks the agreement definitely is a good thing.

"I've always been in favor of bowl games and my staff and I are pleased with the setup," he said. "I believe the faculty men were wise in settling on a short contract to begin with, to give the situation a trial. But I would say prospects are bright for such an agreement to become a permanent one."

All Will Share

Of the $110,000 guaranteed the Big Seven from the Orange Bowl — same as the Atlantic Coast League gets—20 per cent of the net will go to the team playing in the bowl. The other six members will share equally in the other 80 per cent.

Reeves Peters said the Big Seven representative will be allowed a total squad of 60 persons, including players, coaches and other officials. Above that number the participating school will have to foot the bill.

Milan Everett Tops Bowling With Big 673

Way Cleared For Baltimore

MONTREAL (AP)— The transfer of the old St. Louis Browns to Baltimore was cleared officially Monday following the sale of the Maryland territory by the International League.

A settlement, awarding the International league $48,749 for the Baltimore territory, was completed Sunday at a closed meeting between I. L. officials and officers of the American League's new Orioles.

The sale reduced the International League to seven teams, although Baltimore's spot now is expected to be filled by Richmond, Va.

ACC Leaders Say 'Stimulant To Football'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Officials of the recently-formed Atlantic Coast Conference Monday saw their Orange Bowl agreement with the Big Seven as a stimulant to football.

North Carolina State Athletic Director Roy Clogston called the agreement "a fine way to finance our new conference and a shot in the arm for football."

Dr. J. T. Penney of the University of South Carolina, president of the ACC, said "we're very glad that the bowl agreement has been signed and very happy about the arrangements."

University of North Carolina Athletic Director Chuck P. Perickson, member of the conference bowl committee, said the tieup should serve to stimuate football generally in the conference and "has a lot to offer."

South Carolina Coach and Athletic Director Rex Enright called the committee's action "wise" and said the hospitality, color and hotel accommodations at Miami makes it "an excellent bowl."

Coach and Athletic Director Jim Tatum of Maryland also gave his hearty approval of the pact.

Coach Tatum mentioned his close ties with the Big Seven Conference. Coach Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma was his assistant there in 1946, Coach Bill Meek at Kansas State used to be his assistant at Maryland, and he learned the split T from Coach Faurot of Missouri while in the Navy during the last war.

UCLA, Duke, Rice Find Road To Poorhouse Is An Easy One

NEW YORK (AP)—The road to college football's poorhouse is paved with remains of teams that thought they were brimming over with wealth. Ask UCLA, Duke and Rice.

Here were three of the best teams in the country, all undefeated, before they tangled with Stanford, Army and Southern Methodist, respectively. Today, their hopes of appearing in post-season bowl games were all but shattered.

Proud UCLA, a defensive titan that had allowed just seven points in ringing up four victories, was the favorite to win the Pacific Coast Conference title and appear in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day. But Stanford, one of the poor relations of the loop, knocked the Uclans for a "loop" 21-20.

As for Duke, the Blue Devils came a cropper against Army 14-13, and now must hope that Maryland will lose somewhere along the way because the newly formed Atlantic Coast Conference permits only one team to play in a bowl.

● ● ●

RICE HAD high hopes of winning the Southwest Conference championship and playing host in the Cotton Bowl. But Southern Methodist, a better team than many observers thought, had other ideas and won it 12-7. That leaves Baylor still the team to beat in the loop. The latter swamped Vanderbilt 47-6.

Georgia Tech, which has the longest undefeated skein in the land—31 games with two ties—is in the uncomfortable position of having to face Notre Dame, the top-ranking team in the latest Associated Press weekly poll. The Ramblin' Wrecks warmed up to their mission by clubbing Auburn, hitherto undefeated 36-6, while the Irish defeated Pitt 23-14. This will be the top game of the week.

Maryland shows no signs of co-operating with Duke in the Blue Devils' hopes of getting a post-season bid. The Terps walloped North Carolina, 26-0.

Michigan and Illinois, Michigan State's two big threats to the Big 10 title, both won Saturday against league opponents as did the Spartans.

Michigan turned back Northwestern 20-12; the Illini routed Minnesota 27-7, and State pulverized Indiana 47-18.

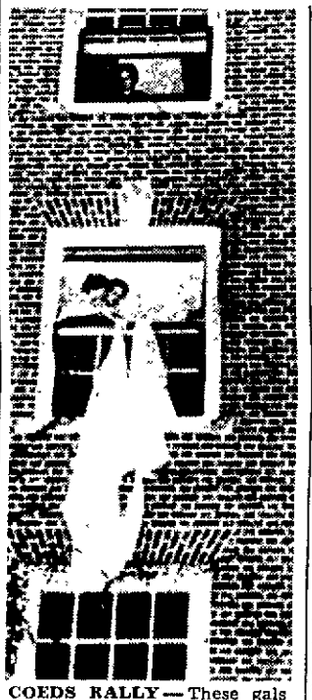

Southern California, the new favorite for the coast title, slaughtered Oregon State 37-0, and must beat California,

Cyclones' HolidayBid Is Failure

AMES, Ia. (AP)—A football victory riot of approximately 4,000 Iowa State College students wore itself out early Monday after 80 police officers tried in vain with tear gas to put down the demonstration.

Traffic on the transcontinental Lincoln Highway (U.S. 30) had to be detoured for more than an hour after the students threw a road block of drainage tile across it.

The students, celebrating a 13-6 homecoming football victory over Missouri Saturday, began demonstrating after their demands for a Monday holiday from classes were not met.

Dr. James Hilton, president of the college, was out of town when the students marched on his home chanting "No classes."

The students then marched through the sorority, fraternity and dormitory areas gathering reinforcements. After a second trip to Hilton's home again produced no response a sit-down strike on the highway followed.

Police Chief Orville Erickson said he used up all his tear gas in an unsuccessful effort to break up the demonstration. When tear gas shells were tossed, however, the students simply dispersed until the fumes drifted away.

Erickson summoned help from nearby counties and from the state highway patrol. Officers did not use their night sticks. One policeman was hit by an egg. At about 2:30 a.m. the demonstration "just ran out of steam" and most of the students went to their rooms, police said

President Hilton, meantime, was reached by telephone. He said students had Friday and Saturday off and he thought that should be enough.

Kids are kids," Dr. Hilton said of the demonstration. He said "I'm sorry as I can be," about the riot and added a few students "did things for which they'll be sorry later."

GAMES THIS WEEK

Friday
Lincoln High at Omaha South
Wilber at College View
Fairbury at Northeast

Despite a 50-50 record last week end, the Capital City's four prep grid teams are favored to win all their games this week.

The schedule starts Thursday when Cathedral goes to Omaha St. Joseph. The game is set for Creighton Stadium.

Friday finds Lincoln at Omaha and Wilber at College View.

NORTHEAST, loser of its last three in a row after three straight wins, starts over against Fairbury. The Rockets played to Omaha South, 12-7, last Friday good football, although, losing day.

Bun Galloway's gang is favored to dump Fairbury, a Mid-East loop foe, at O. N. Magee Stadium.

College View, winner of a 9-6 battle over Cathedral, rates a solid vote against Wilber, a hot-and-cold club so far this season.

Lincoln should go ahead in its series against Omaha schools. The Links lost to Central in the opener, but evened the count last Friday with a 21-7 victory over North.

Cathedral is out to even its mark against Gate City opponones. The Bluebirds lost to Holy Name, 25-0, but St. Joseph High hasn't the guns that the Ramblers do and Coach Vince Aldrich's battlers are favored.

Here's how the Capital City teams' opponents fared last week:

South — defeated Northeast, 12-7.

Fairbury — defeated Beatrice, 19-12.

Wilber — defeated Waverly, 18-0.

St. Joseph's—lost to Fremont St. Pat's, 13-12.

Maryland, OU Appear Best Bets

Agreement Set For Two Years

Compiled From News Wires

MIAMI — The Orange Bowl's tieup with the Atlantic Coast and Big Seven conferences projected Maryland and Oklahoma today as the likely opponents for the annual New Year's Day football tussle.

The agreement that the two conferences will furnish their champions to the Orange Bowl for the next two years was announced in Miami late Sunday. The pact had been expected for several weeks and came after Big Seven faculty officials gave final approval at a meeting in Kansas City, Mo., Sunday.

● ● ●

UNDEFEATED Maryland in the Atlantic Coast and once beaten, once tied Oklahoma from the Big Seven were favored to win their conference championships and meet next Jan. 1 in the first game under the new agreement. Should there be a tie for the conference title, conference officials would choose the bowl team.

● ● ●

Seven schools broke with the Southern Conference this year to form the Atlantic Coast group. They were Maryland, Wake Forest, North Carolina, North Carolina State, Duke, Clemson and South Carolina. Virginia became an eighth member recently but isn't competing in conference football this season.

● ● ●

MANY details of the agreement remain to be worked out, including whether a team would be permitted to appear in the bowl two years in a row, seating arrangements and which team will appear as host.

Van C. Kussrow, head of the Orange Bowl Schedule Committee, said the Big Seven opposes letting one team participate two consecutive years.

The agreement guarantees each team $110,000, which is approximately one-third of the gate, and 11,000 tickets. The guarantee will be $112,000 for the 1955 game, the committee said.

The Orange Bowl Committee said it expects to seat more than 70,000 fans at the 1954 game with addition of some 3,000 seats now being constructed at the steel and concrete bowl. The Columbia Broadcasting System is under contract to televise the game nation-wide, which annually is a sell-out.

THE ORANGE Bowl action, long expected, leaves only three major bowl berths open for competitive bidding—two in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and one in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

The field from which the Sugar and Cotton bowls can choose was severely restricted by the Orange Bowl's success in tieing up the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast groups.

NEW YORK (AP) — The title picture in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League was much clearer today with Cleveland the only undefeated team But not so in the Western Conference where three teams were deadlocked for the lead, each with three victories and one setback

Cleveland's Browns took undisputed command of the Eastern Division Sunday handing the Washington Redskins their first setback 30-14. But the Detroit Lions, 1952 champions were dumped out of the unbeaten class by the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 And the San Francisco 49ers outscored the Chicago Bears 35-28 That left the Lions Rams and 49ers tied for first place

In other games the New York Giants and Green Bay Packers came up with their first victories The Giants beat the still winless Chicago Cardinals 21-7 On Saturday night the Philadelphia Eagles got out of the victoryless group by whipping the Pittsburgh Steelers 23-7

• • •

THE WESTERN Conference race could be straightened out a little this week end when the Lions travel to San Francisco In their previous meeting a week ago Detroit defeated the 49ers 24 21 The Rams play host to the Chicago Bears who could prove troublesome off the scoring punch they showed Sunday

The Browns will be in New York as the favorites but these two teams are famous for playing close low scoring games and now that Steve Owen's boys have discovered they can score it may mean trouble for Otto Graham and his cohorts

The Bears took a quick 21 0 lead over the 49ers but that was all of their scoring until late in the game After two Frisco touchdowns in each of the final two quarters the 49ers had a 35 21 bulge With their ace passer Y A Tittle sidelined by injuries, the 49ers depended mostly on the ground eating shots of Joe Perry, Joe Arenas and Hugh McElhenny

Chuck Conerly let loose with a 60-yard pass to Ray Pelfrey and set up another touchdown with two long heaves as the Giants made their home debut before 30,301 spectators. Conerly completed 10 of 15 aerials for 174 yards.

A crowd of 18 713 saw the Packers cash in on three breaks at the expense of Fred Enke in beating the Baltimore Colts 37-14 Five backs shared Green Bay scoring honors

Strange Doings Puzzling Turpin-Olson Fight Scene

NEW YORK (AP)—England's Randy Turpin and San Francisco's Carl (Bobo) Olson meet for the middleweight championship Wednesday night in an international bout that has more puzzling angles than a dime detective story

Here's Turpin, onetime conqueror of the great Ray Robinson and a former champion himself, rated a 2-1 underdog against the man who was stopped and beaten by Robinson

• • •

SURE, TURPIN was stopped by Sugar Ray in 10 rounds in their second fight but the strong invader seemed on his way to victory when Referee Ruby Goldstein halted the bout with eight seconds left in the round

The feeling, of course, is that the 25-year-old British Negro has slipped since fighting Robinson and that Olson has come along at a rapid rate.

But more than that is the Turpin's strange training procedure. He has boxed only 28 rounds since he arrived in America a month ago

• • •

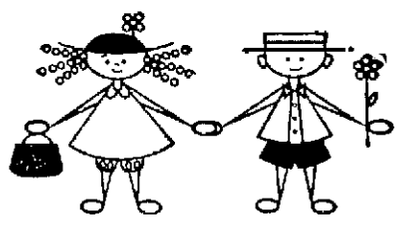

RANDY, himself said that he will be in top shape and that too much boxing would make him stale But Jack Solomons, the British promoter who always has had the big say in Turpin's career has gone on record as saying he doesn't approve" Randy's training methods

"He hasn't boxed enough," said Solomons "If it goes 15 rounds Olson will win"

It could be that the British are playing possum It could be, too, that Turpin has been doing some fighting in secret

CBS will telecast and broadcast the 9 p m scrap

Boy Polio Victim Tells Visitor Ike, He's Demo

MISSION, Tex. (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Tommy Robertson wasn't worried about political party labels when President Eisenhower paid him a visit.

The young polio victim, paralyzed from the neck down, proudly told the President:

"We are Texas Democrats."

President Eisenhower had only laughter as a reply to the lone political note of his surprise visit to the Robertson home immediately after church services.

He and Tommy chatted about golf and checkers and joked with Texas Gov. Allan Shivers, a long-time friend of Tommy and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson.

* * *

A GOLF course is just a short distance from the Robertsons' pretty, brick ranch style home and this led to a discussion of various types of golf clubs.

Tommy and his mother were playing checkers on the lawn when the President arrived. The visitor sat down and explained it had been a long while since he had played the game.

The friendly youngster replied with an explanation he had to have his checkers numbered so he could tell his opponents which moves to make for him.

Mrs. Robertson said Tommy was calm during the brief visit.

* * *

"HE TALKED to the President as a friend," she said. "He's known Allan Shivers a long while and he treated President Eisenhower and Allan the same way."

She admitted that she and her 10-year-old son, Bill, were the ones who got very, very excited.

Bill made two quick trips into the house. The first time to get a camera. After taking group pictures he returned and found a picture of the President in a magazine and got it autographed.

During the afternoon, Tommy had fun with his young friends.

Using special telephone equipment, he called each one and said:

"Well, I guess you know who is important in this town. The President came to see me."

Boy Suffocates In Icebox

OROVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Nine-year-old Thomas Kiely suffocated in the icebox of a vacant house trailer, bringing to 27 the number of children who have died in such tragedies over the nation so far this year.

The boy's widowed mother, Mrs. Nellie Kiely, said she had not seen her son all afternoon and assumed he was at a neighbor's home watching television. Later in the evening she sent her eldest son, John, 14, to look for the boy.

John looked in the trailer and then opened the small icebox. "I can't explain why I looked in there," he said, "but there he was."

Mrs. Kiely said her son habitually went off by himself to brood since the death of his father a year ago.

Six in Family Killed in Fire

AMBLER, Pa. (AP)—A mother and her five children are dead in one of the worst fire tragedies in the history of this suburban Philadelphia community.

The husband and father of the victims and four guests of the family escaped the blaze which swept through their three-story home early Sunday morning.

An oil stove explosion touched off the blaze, firemen reported, and in seconds flames shot up an open stairway leading to the upper two floors. The victims were all trapped in third floor bedrooms. Two people on the second floor escaped.

The father, John Duckett Sr., 32, was on the first floor with a friend, Stanley Tate, 23, when the explosion occurred. The pair tried in vain to get up the stairway but finally had to flee.

Duckett's wife, Dora, 29, was found lying in the doorway of the front bedroom with three-months-old Arlene in her arms. The rest of the children, John Jr., 6; June, 5; Dorothea, 4, and Calvin, 3, were found huddled on the floor of the bedroom.

Acting Coroner Dr. John Simpson said they had been overcome by smoke.

NEW YORK (AP)—Led by industrial issues, stocks declined moderately Monday in slow dealings

There was nothing in the day's news developments to account for the dip in prices However, the experts pointed out that the list was due for some profit-taking because of its recent sharp advance

Volume dried up on the sell-off and early dealings were very slow Sales in the first two hours totaled only 480 000 shares, compared with 730,000 in the same period Friday.

State's December Draft Call Is 166

Nebraska has been asked to supply 166 men to Selective Service in December It is the lowest call which the state has received since June, 1952, when Nebraska's quota was 126

This month's call was for 200 men, and next month's is for 182.

Col Francis Drath, state Selective Service manpower chief, said that none will be taken through the Christmas-New Year's holiday period, as in past years.

This means, he said, that the men taken in December will have been delivered by Dec. 11 Inductions will resume about Jan 4

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name *Preparation H. The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly.

Retiring GI City Manager Critic of State Tax System

'Trouble Is People Pay Taxes Only On What They Can't Hide'

Special to The Journal

GRAND ISLAND—The trouble with Nebraska's tax system is that "people pay taxes only on what they can't hide."

So said Grand Island City Manager L. R. Rudd, who has resigned his post effective Dec. 31.

In his resignation letter Rudd said he is quitting because "of the increase in demand for services, extensions, improvements and betterments" and at the same time a constant "demand for lower costs." He added that the "general tax muddle or misunderstanding that now exists" complicates matters.

Rudd told The Lincoln Journal that he sees two ways of improving the situation—education and explanation to citizens about taxes and possibly a change in the state tax structure.

* * *

"THERE'S TOO much talk about real estate carrying too much tax," Rudd said.

But Rudd said he wasn't thinking of the situation on the south edge of Grand Island spotlighted in a Sunday Journal and Star story.

This story told about how a large number of industries clustered on the outside of the cities enjoy a taxing rate about half of what those inside the city pay.

"That's more or less typical of a lot of cities. I think it will be worked out here in time," Rudd said.

Rudd said he thought there is a crying need for explaining taxes and governmental services.

* * *

"TOO MANY people are not informed on taxes and blame the nearest government official. In Grand Island it is the city manager who gets the hot end of the poker," Rudd explained.

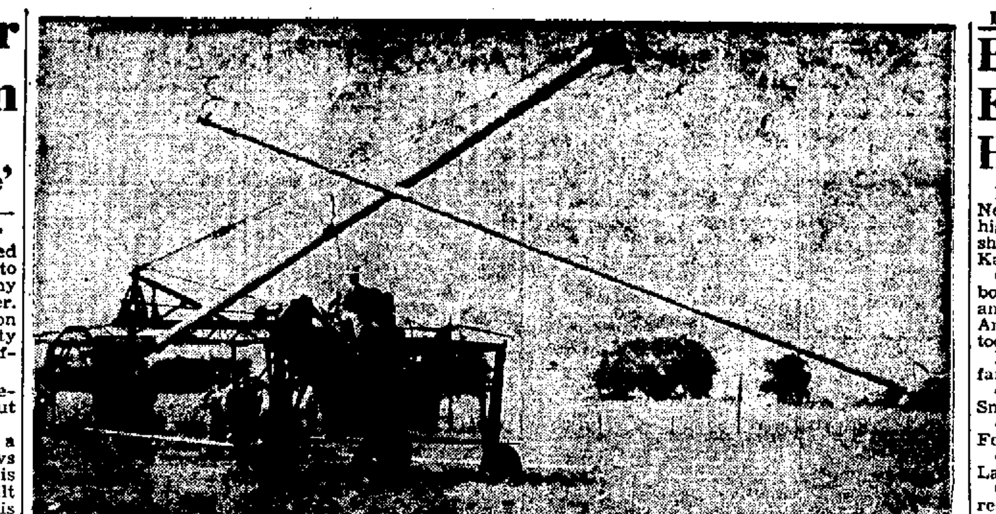

But the resigning city manager said he thinks the Legislature should take steps to "work out something more equitable."

He said a sales tax coupled with a graduated income tax "to get those who aren't taxed any other way" might be the answer.

At present the tax situation makes it difficult for any city manager in Nebraska, Russ affirmed.

He said that he is leaving because he feels he has done about all he can.

"The first city manager in a town plows the field, harrows and disks it. But when it is ready for seeding he has built up so much opposition that it is best that he leave and let a new man carry on," Rudd said.

STAPLEHURST PIPE MOVER—Walter Herpolsheimer of Seward used old auto frames and an auto engine, plus three electric motors and some rope, to construct this derrick-like device to carry irrigation pipes around his field at Staplehurst Formerly the pipes had to be moved by hand every five hours.

OSCEOLA — Donald D. Gee, 25, Columbus truck operator, was killed Sunday when the car in which he was riding missed a curve and overturned three miles west of here, Sheriff Willard Cornell said.

Gee and his wife, Betty, 26, were enroute from Stromsburg.

The sheriff said the car left skidmarks of 200 feet before it plunged off the highway at the Y-junction of Highways 81 and 92-A.

Gee died of a broken neck, the sheriff said. He added that this is the fifth fatality in this area in about six weeks.

TECUMSEH'S DILEMMA—Too dangerous to remain standing and too expensive to take down, is the story of the smoke stack at the Tecumseh Light and Water Plant. The stack is said crumbling at the top, but because of the nearby building and equipment it will have to be dismantled instead of knocked down. The cost of dismantling is termed high. CURLY KAYOE

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

BY ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.Sc.

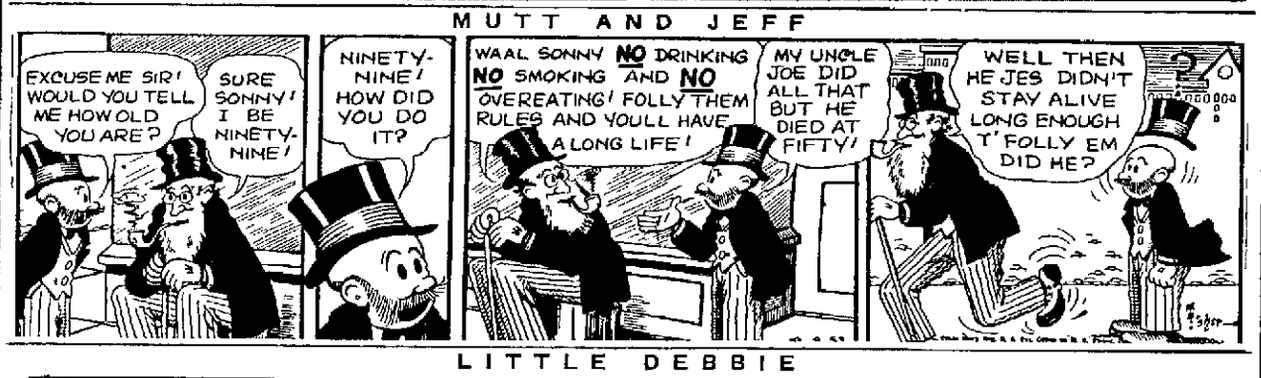

1 Mrs Louise Randall Pearson says it s because ever since Eve women have had to rear a brood of wild humans in their homes—Cain, Abel Jimmy Mary and often a dozen others This has given them a background for training animals that no mere man has ever had Coping with wildcats is child s play compared to this job Mrs Pearson has surely given both animal and human psychologists something to think about

2 According to the late Ellsworth Huntington right after a long night thunder storm when the sky is clearing under a morning sun That seems to be the time as James Whitcomb Riley said 'when a feller s a feelin' at his best Students make the best grades in the autumn when the nights are cool and frosty and the days warm and sunny A change in weather seems to stimulate both mind and body

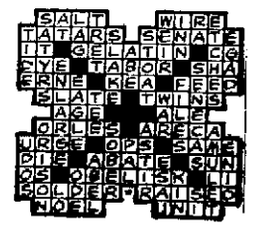

3 Yes Myrtle Bonn writes that parents should first ask themselves 'Will this toy develop my child physically socially or mentally' A good toy is one that holds the child s interest a long time and helps creative ability and imagination It should also be durable and fitted to the child s mental age

Mother You have to take a nap You re too little to go without one No I won t take off your shoes You re big enough to do it yourself

Mother While Sister is at school and baby s asleep you and I can rest awhile I will read you a story before I lie down if you want me to Middle children s trying behavior may be due to too many reminders that they are too little to do as privileged oldest, and too big to do as attention-getting youngest do.
